EDMUND STOVER DEAD.

News Editor of Western Division of Associated Press Passes Away at Colfax, Cal.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

COLFAX (Cal.) July 14.—L. Edmund Stover, news editor of the Western division of the Associated Press, died here today after an illness of six months. He was 40 years old and unmarried, and is survived by his father and mother, a brother,

Frank Stover, at Centerville, South

Dakota, three at married sisters.
In addition to being a newspaper man of marked ability, Mr. Stover was a contributor of short stories and connected with the Associated Press

in different executive and news capacities for more than seven years.

The National Republican Convention in 1912, Mr. Stover occupied a responsible position with the Associated Press in the preparation of the minutes concerning the delegations of that body. Within recent years he was in charge of the Verdict.

Then Both Shake Hands with the Twelve Jurymen.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
NEW YORK, July 14.—Harry Kendall Thaw today was declared sane

by a jury which for nearly three weeks

listened to testimony given in the Supreme Court here before Justice Peter

Hendrick. Forty-eight minutes were consumed and two ballots were taken in reaching a verdict.

Justice Hendrick on Friday morning will announce whether the commitment upon which Thaw was incarcerated in the State Hospital for the Criminal Insane at Matteawan

shall be vacated, thereby giving to the son of Stanford White the liberty

for which he has fought in the courts
for nine years.

CROWD IN COURT.
It was at the end of a day of address by counsel and the charge of the justice that the jury retired.

While the twelve men were deliberating the crowd in the courtroom and

by scores of people, who believed that a verdict quickly would be found.

Shortly before 4 o'clock a bailiff came from the juryroom and informed Justice Hendrick that a verdict had been reached. The doors were locked and Justice Hendrick, ascending the bench, adopted the report of the credentials committee and ordered greetings sent to the Shriners in session at Seattle.

Other officers elected by the circle

included Miss Dora Alexander, Omaha,
Supreme Clerk, and Mrs. Nora de

POSSE KILLS NEGRO SLAYER.
Desperado Is Shot Down by Officers

After House Was Blown up by Dynamite Near Cochran, Ga.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE]
MACON (Ga.) July 14.—A posse

of citizens and county officers today shot and killed Peter Jackson, a negro, accused of killing three white men near Cochran, Ga. The negro had baricaded himself in his home and defied the posse, who, according to reports received here, blew up the house with dynamite. Jackson, it was stated,

continued firing after his house was dynamited, and he then was shot down.

The dead are: W. S. Hogg, aged 40, night marshal; Lynn Sanders, 40, farm supervisor; and Oscar Lawson, 32, a farm hand.

Jackson, according to reports, was criticized by Samuels, who said that some work he had done, and the superior is said to have struck the negro. Later, it is alleged, Jackson was shot by a posse of citizens and county officers. He was shot in the back and died instantly.

Hogg and Lawson went to Jackson's home today to arrest him, when it is alleged that he was shot by a posse

with a shotgun. They died shortly afterward.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

senting juror said he cast his ballot
that way more as a matter of form

than anything else so that the verdict would not be rendered without formal discussion. The vote was unanimous on the second ballot.

Thaw began his fight for freedom
following the slaying of Stanford

White, an architect, on the roof of Madison Square Garden on the night of June 25, 1906. After two sensational trials, the first of which resulted in a disagreement, Thaw was acquitted on the ground of insanity,

but was ordered committed to Matteawan.

In February, 1908, Thaw's counsel obtained writs of habeas corpus, requiring his examination in court with a view to establishing his sanity, but these examinations invariably were denied.

Thaw subsequently made a dash
for liberty on August 17, 1913, escaping in an automobile to Coaticook, Quebec, where he was arrested. He was later released and sent back across the border, being arrested in

New Hampshire. There a commissioner declared him mentally sound.

He lost and was brought back here,
and with those who aided in his escape, was tried on a charge of conspiracy. All were acquitted.

Thaw having been declared mentally sound in New Hampshire, he then started proceedings here to have his sanity established in the State which still was fighting to have him returned to Matteawan.

A motion for a trial by jury was granted by Judge Hendrick on April

23. The trial was begun on June 22.

WOODMEN'S CIRCLE ELECTION.
Mrs. E. B. Manchester of Omaha

Is Re-elected Supreme Guardian at the Convention in St. Paul.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
ST. PAUL (Minn.) July 14.—Mrs.

E. B. Manchester of Omaha was re-elected Supreme Guardian of the Woodmen's Circle, the women's branch of the Woodmen of the World,

at a business meeting late today at which committees were organized and reports accepted.

The main body of the Woodmen of the World, which is holding its bi-annual convention here, listened to address by the report of its credentials committee and ordered greetings sent to the Shriners in session at Seattle.

Other officers elected by the circle
included Miss Dora Alexander, Omaha,

Supreme Clerk, and Mrs. Nora de
Bolt, Oklahoma City, Supreme Banker.

The President is expected to act on

the Marrye resignation as soon as he disposes of his reply to the German

note. Marrye's successor will probably be sent to Petrograd at the earliest possible moment.

GOING TO THE ORIENT.

[BY WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE

TIMES, July 14.—Marrye, who is now in California, is planning a trip to the Orient, according to advices from Chicago, where they will join Mrs. Marrye and accompany her on the voyage.

Mrs. Marrye, with her sister and young daughter, stopped at the Blackstone en route from Washington to Burlington, Cal. recently. Mrs.

Marrye's new home at Burlingame,
Cal., which she bought for $100,000,

Resignation of Marrye.

declined absolutely to return to Petrograd, and, because of her wishes, Mr.

Marrye was to be relieved as soon as possible in order to join her in this country.

At the State Department it was learned that two men have been suggested as the successor to the Ambassador. One is Henry P. Fletcher, now Ambassador to Chile. The other is Paul M. Reinsch, Minister to China.

Mr. Fletcher is regarded as one of the ablest diplomats in the American service at the present time. For this reason his selection as Ambassador to Russia may be made, inasmuch as Mr.

Wilson has already signified his desire for a new commercial treaty with the United States, to take the place of the treaty of 1832, which was abrogated during the Taft administration because of the refusal of Russia to recognize naturalized Russian Jews as American citizens, together with its refusal to permit the American Jews to enter the country.

President Wilson has had much difficulty with the Russian post. His first selection for Ambassador was Henry M. Pindell, a Peoria editor. A letter which Senator James Hamilton Lewis of Illinois wrote Pindell, tendering him the place on behalf of the President, robbed him of the opportunity to serve at Petrograd. Senator Lewis pointed the place as a pleasure

resort where Pindell and his family could enjoy all kinds of frivolities and gain many honors at the government's expense, quitting it whenever they desired in order to travel about Europe

and visit the other courts and pleasure places, at all of which they would be received with open arms on Senator Lewis's card of introduction.

Lewis also stipulated that Pindell was to hold the place but a year, and that if he "went crock" before the end of the year he could get a leave of absence and come home to recuperate

here.
The President's next choice was

Congressman Sharp of Ohio, now Ambassador to France. Sharp, however, had made speeches in Congress, urging the abrogation of the treaty of 1832, and in these speeches he had severely arraigned the Russian government. Russia, in reply to queries

as to whether he would be acceptable

or not, said emphatically that he would not. At the time Mr. Marrye was under consideration for the post at Petrograd, the President decided to give him the place at Petrograd and Sharp the one at Paris. The switch from Paris to Petrograd was not liked by Mrs. Marrye.

Ambassador Marrye has served hardly a year. His wife remained in Russia but a few months. It was impossible to learn here today whether she was received at court or not, but several officials said they were under the impression that she had not been received.

The President is expected to act on
the Marrye resignation as soon as he

disposes of his reply to the German
note. Marrye's successor will probably be sent to Petrograd at the earliest possible moment.

This plan would undoubtedly be followed after determined efforts of Zapata against Mexico City. Although it is stated that the Zapatistas have been routed by their recent defeat by Carranza forces at the capital, it is probable that they would make it very difficult for Carranza should the "new Chief" detach forces at Mexico for the relief of Oregon in the

The international programme will open Sunday with a song service conducted by W. E. M. Hackleman of Indianapolis, a song leader of wide reputation, who has been a prominent figure in all the conventions of the Disciples of Christ for a quarter of a century or more. He is a soloist of power and a writer and publisher of religious music.

At 2 p.m. Sunday Rev. W. M. White of Iowa, the convention president, will speak. He was for a number of years the pastor of the leading Christian church of San Francisco and is widely known in this State. His theme Sunday will be "The Mission of the Church."

The sessions Monday will be in the interest of the Christian Women's Board of Missions. Though dues in this organization are only 15 cents a month, it raised $35,000 from that source alone last year, while the total amount from all sources was $414,000.

SAN GABRIEL'S GRAVITY FLOW.

RIVER HIGHER THAN IN YEARS CAUSED BY HEAVY RAINFALLS.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
COVINA, July 14.—Not in years has the gravity flow of the San Gabriel River been so high as in the case this year when compared with other mid-summer months, according to Superintendent F. L. Nash of the Covina Irrigating Company. The pumps of the company, situated at Baldwin Park, will not be started until September owing to this plentiful river flow.

Several causes contribute to the high flow, the principal one being the unusually heavy rainfalls of the past two years, and the cold rains of early this year, which lodged great deposits of snow in the high mountains.

But the most significant reason is that the United States Forestry Service is becoming more efficient each year, with the result that the brooks over the mountains is being protected from fire, thus conserving and holding back the water in the high mountains. No fire of any consequence has been experienced in the San Gabriel watershed for three years.

SOLDIERS' HOME NOTES.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SOLDIERS' HOME, July 14.—Col C. W. Wadsworth, for many years assistant inspector-general of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, has been appointed general treasurer at $4500 per annum, vice Maj. Harris, resigned.

The appointment meets with general satisfaction by officers and members of this branch of the home. For the reason that on the colonel's frequent official visits to this place unfailing courtesy at all times governed his dealings with officers and veterans.

The postoffice at this place is operated under the designation of Soldiers' Home branch of the Sawtelle postoffice, with C. S. Martin of Sawtelle postmaster, and A. M. Eagler superintendent of the branch office.

In order that veterans and their friends may not get matters mixed, the postmaster desiring to have them understand that mail directed, as heretofore will answer all purposes, and that postal savings bank, money orders issued and registered letter systems will be continued at this place.

Lieut. Otto Brackebush, who remained after several years' service as commissary sergeant in charge of the main mess hall, has been reappointed to that office, and his wife, Mrs. Louise Brackebush has been appointed matron of waitresses in the same mess hall.

THE CITY AND ENVIRONS.

EVENTS BRIEFLY TOLD.

"Who Wants War?"

The subject "Who Wants War?" will be discussed at a symposium at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Los Angeles Central W.C.T.U. Mrs. Mary Garbutt, Superintendent of the Department of Peace, will lead the discussion.

"Power of Unity."

Mrs. Estelle Lawton Lindsey, member of the City Council, will speak on "The Power of Unity" at a meeting of the Laborers' Fraternal Protective Association of the Street and Park Departments of the City of Los Angeles at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at No. 113 North Main street.

All-Day Meeting.

An all-day religious meeting will be held today at the Union Mission, No. 305 West avenue 31. At the morning program, which will begin at 10 a.m., Dr. Robert Renssion will discuss the Book of Revelations. A people's meeting will be held this afternoon, led by Mrs. Charles H. Babcock. Rev. A. E. Mitchell will lead a devotional service this evening.

Westlake Postal Move.

August 1 a postoffice station will be established on Alvarado street, between Sixth and Seventh streets, displacing Westlake Station, now on West Seventh street. It will accommodate the business boom that is fast reaching out on Alvarado street and spreading in all that vicinity. The building to be occupied by the postoffice was formerly a little motion-picture theater.

Children's Extravaganza.

Sixty children are taking part in an interesting entertainment, given every night this week, except tonight, at the Juvenile Exposition in the old Normal School Building. The children principals in the extravaganza include Queen California and her court, children representing the various nations at the opening of the Panama Canal, fairies, birds, flowers, the sun and raindrops. Some of the interesting features are the butterfly dance, the awakening of the poppies and the tableau of the East Wind.

Barbara-Fathema Union.

Representatives of the Baraca and Philathea Sunday-school classes in Los Angeles met at the Y.M.C.A. Monday evening and formed a city union. One hundred and sixteen classes were represented at the meeting. The following officers were elected: President, Robert McKibben, vice-president, Hazel Adenbough, secretary, Elsie Hora, and treasurer, Guy Bush. The union was formed partly as a result of inspiration received from the recent Baraca-Fathema convention.

Psychopathic Association.

The members of the Board of Directors and the active members of the Psychopathic Association of Southern California held a meeting Tuesday evening at the Hotel California. W. S. James, Judge Wilbur presided. The following were present: Judge Reeve, Dr. C. S. Allen, Dr. H. G. Brainerd, Mrs. Oliver P. Clark, Dr. Elizabeth Kearney, Dr. W. B. Kerr, Fred C. Needles, Dr. Grant Spear, Dr. Charles H. Whitman, Dr. J. B. Brainerd made a report on the progress at the Norwalk Hospital. He said that four buildings were now being constructed and a fifth being planned. Judge Reeve spoke on "The Relation of the Juvenile Court to the Defective Child."

Funeral Services for Mrs. Effie Gardner.

Funeral services for Mrs. Effie Gardner, farmer, who died in Chicago the 8th inst., will be held at Connell's undertaking parlors tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Gardner graduated from Los Angeles High School in 1903 and resided here for the greater part of her life until her marriage in 1904 to Jerome A. Gardner, of Elkhart, Ind. She was born in Leadville, Colo., in 1884, the daughter of Benjamin F. Gardner, formerly well known in business circles here. In addition to an invalid husband she leaves three children, a mother, Mrs. Olive M. Gardner, and a brother, Alty. Chauncey Gardner, both of this city. The remains, en route from Chicago, are accompanied by the children and Mrs. D. M. Armstrong, a relative.

NEW FRATERNITY.

The National Order of the Golden Square, a new fraternity organized by Los Angeles men, formed its first lodge at a meeting held last night at No. 111 West Third street. The members of the supreme temple have already been appointed. The organization came into existence a few weeks ago, when eleven men, representing eleven other fraternal organizations, banded together and incorporated in to the National Order of the Golden Square. W. E. Baxter was elected Past Governor Supreme and N. Banks Crisler Governor Supreme. The new body is purely fraternal. It expects to open lodges soon in St. Louis and Providence, R. I. Lodge No. 1, Los Angeles, was first.

PLAYS WITH REVOLVER.

ORANGE, July 14.—Climbing on a chair, Everett Clapp, 5-year-old son of D. E. Clapp, got hold of a loaded revolver. He proceeded to play with it. The weapon was discharged and the bullet shattered a bone above the left knee.

EXCURSIONISTS HAVE RETURNED.

ENJOY FINE TRIP TO NORTHERN EXPOSITION.

Members of "The Times" Party See Sight at the Great Fair that They Never will Forget—Best of Accommodations There—Another Excursion Next Month.

After five days of delightful wandering among the beautiful and interesting exhibits of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, the members of The Times' Special Train Excursion returned to this city yesterday morning.

Upon its arrival at San Francisco last Friday morning the party was greeted by weather more typical of Southern California than of the Bay City. Climatically, each day spent at the exposition seemed to be more perfect than the preceding one.

After being assigned to well-furnished and ventilated rooms at the inside inn, the various members of the party made their own sightseeing plans, and throughout their stay in San Francisco each one did as he or she pleased without being hampered by any of the rules or restrictions common to personally conducted tours.

The accommodations and cuisine at the inside inn are all that the most discriminating persons can desire.

The exposition, which is indeed an "epitome of civilization," baffles description, and it is quite impossible to graphically picture its grandeur. It suffices to say, however, that it is the consensus of opinion of The Times' excursionists that the various palaces and courts, the grounds, sculpture, mural paintings and illumination alone are well worth a trip across the continent.

The palaces and courts, as well as the buildings of the different States and Nations, were all sources of wonderment and instruction to the party.

The innumerable exhibits, ocean regattas in Festival Hall, hand concerts and display of fireworks, were thoroughly enjoyed, and the zone was productive of much mirth and merriment. California's Building, with its "dancing" replica of the forbidden gardens of the Santa Barbara Mission and attractive display of the State's resources was a favorite rendezvous of many members of the party.

The joys of a visit to the Panama-Pacific International Exposition are in no sense fleeting. For many years to come the individual members of the party will derive pleasure from the memories of the superb architecture and magnificent color scheme of the buildings; the dazzling Tower of Jewels; flowers, vines and shrubs bewildering in their profusion and beauty; paintings, prints, marble and bronze statuary of rare merit; educational horticulture, agriculture, live stock, machinery, transportation, oil, mining, industrial, food and school exhibits; towering obelisks, illuminated fountains and placid lagoons; inspiring music, waving banners, thrilling aeroplane flights; surging crowds of well-dressed, festive men and women, and a legion of other attractions.

Arrangements for the comfort and well-being of the party were so made that the excursion was conducted without the slightest inconvenience to any one, and it is probable that San Francisco's marvelous fair has never been visited by a better satisfied or more enthusiastic party.

In response to a popular demand, The Times will conduct another Special Train Excursion in August, the date of which will be announced within a few days.

Motor trips around Coronado are a delight to everyone.—LADY.

THE WEATHER.

(Official Report.)

LOCAL OFFICE U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, July 14.—(Reported by Ford A. Carpenter, Local Forecaster.) At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 30.97; at 8 a.m., 30.93. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 60 deg. and 70 deg. Relative humidity 5 a.m., 65 per cent.; 8 a.m., 67 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., southeast, velocity 3 miles; 8 p.m., southwest, velocity 9 miles. Highest temperature, 78 deg.; lowest, 60 deg. Rainfall for season, 17.00 inches; last season, 20.00 inches. Barometer reduced to sea level.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The western area of low pressure is slowly moving the region between the Northwestern Basin and the central portion of the Mississippi Valley. Heavy rain resulted in Minnesota, 1.15 inches falling at St. Paul during the past twenty-four hours. It is cooler this morning over Nevada, Utah, Idaho and Montana; in all these States the decrease in temperature amounted to ten degrees or more. It is slightly warmer in Oregon, Nevada, Tennessee and New York, elsewhere day after day changes were unimportant.

LOCAL FORECAST.

For Los Angeles and vicinity: Fair Thursday, except for intervals of clouds early Thursday morning. Westerly winds. For Southern California: Fair Thursday.

STATE FORECAST.

San Francisco, Oakland and vicinity: Fair Thursday; moderate west wind. Northern California: Fair Thursday, light north-westerly wind. Sacramento, Santa Clara and San Joaquin Valleys: Fair Thursday, light southerly wind. Southern California: Fair Thursday, light southerly wind.

ARIZONA FORECAST.

Arizona: Generally fair Thursday and Friday; not much change in temperature. YUMA (Ariz.) July 14.—(Executive Dispatch from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.) The Colorado River, 18.45 feet.

ROTARIANS AS VISITORS.

Members en route to San Francisco Convention From Across Country Saying "Hello" Here.

The Los Angeles Rotarians are extending California's famous brand of welcome to special trainloads of Rotarians en route to the Rotary convention at San Francisco next week.

A special trainload from New York City of 115 Rotarians, headed by William Gettinger, president of the New York Rotary Club, and W. A. Peace of Toronto, vice-president of the Canadian division, arrived yesterday afternoon.

This afternoon a special train bearing the Texas Rotarians will arrive, headed by Robert H. Cornell of Houston, vice-president of the western division; the southern division will also arrive, headed by John E. Shelby of Birmingham, vice-president.

There are also delegations arriving from Minneapolis, Denver, Cincinnati and Cleveland.

The Los Angeles Rotarians, assisted by the ladies, will entertain visitors with special automobile trips, visits to the "Mission Play" and to Universal City.

All visiting Rotarians will attend the elaborate banquet at the Alexandria Hotel tomorrow noon, where plates will be laid for 500 persons.

The Los Angeles Rotarians will leave Sunday morning at 8 o'clock for San Francisco, where the international convention will be held.

MRS. AMOS ARRAIGNED.

Excentric Rich Woman Released on Bond—Charged with Threatening Assault.

Mrs. Edith Amos, the excentric rich woman who adopted a cabaret singer, was arraigned before Justice Summerfield yesterday on a charge of threatening assault with a deadly weapon upon L. A. Sullivan.

Sullivan has sued her for $30,000 for a breach of promise; not, however, for promising to assault him with a deadly weapon and then failing to deliver. That is another case.

Constable Woodbury had a very pleasant ride on the steamer Governor from San Francisco with Mrs. Amos. She was arrested in the Bay City on complaint of Sullivan.

With her in court yesterday was Alois Maier, her adopted son, whose sweet tenor warbles an accompaniment to the clink-clank of steins in a Spring-street cafe.

Mrs. Amos was released under $1500 bond and her preliminary examination was set for July 21.

JARS TOP OFF ISLAND.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

SAN DIEGO, July 14.—A remarkable change in the contour of one of the Coronado Islands, twenty miles off this coast, since the recent earthquake at Imperial, is reported by Capt. R. H. Crockett of the steamer Virginia. The island, which previously lay to a height of 200 feet, has lost about forty feet in altitude. The captain could not tell whether the loss in height had been the result of the sinking of the rock into the ocean or by the opening of a fissure near the summit that would allow a portion of the rock to drop in the cauldron. The Coronado Island is uninhabited except by wild goats and rattlesnakes.

TODAY'S BEAUTY AIDS

To clear up and whiten the skin and secure that charm of pink and white youthful freshness so much desired by all women you will find it far safer to rely upon a good face lotion rather than powder. To get rid of that shiny and muddy appearance in your complexion, dissolve 4 ounces of sorbum in one-half pint hot water, and add two teaspoonfuls glycerin. Apply this to your face, neck and arms, rubbing gently until dry. This lotion does not show or rub off like powder and is much better. It is splendid for removing tan, freckles, pimples and sallowness.

You can make a delightful shampoo for a very trifling cost if you get from your druggist a package of cat-throx and dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. Pour a little at a time on the scalp and rub briskly. This creates an abundance of thick, white lather that thoroughly dissolves and removes all dandruff, excess oil and dirt. After rinsing, the hair dries quickly, with a softness that makes it seem heavier than it is, and takes on a rich luster and a softness that makes arranging it a pleasure.

CITY OUTDOES ITSELF IN CROWNING EVENT OF EXPOSITION YEAR.

Selected bits from the floral parade yesterday.

One of the notable features was the large number of excellent contributions from cities other than those of Southern California. Easily surpassing among these efforts of visitors to Los Angeles was the showing made by the crack southern regiment, the Richmond Blues, military escort to Gov. Stuart, and the Salt Lake High School Cadets, who occupy a similar relation to Gov. William Spry, of Utah.

Our Best.

VISTA OF FAIR GARDENS FOR VISITING THROGS' DELIGHT.

Midsummer Floral Dream and Allegorical Pageant Exceeds Most Sanguine Expectations in Richness and Beauty of Conception Ably Realized.

SOME persons have exceeding great difficulty in justifying their liking for caviar. The Grand Canyon is also included in the category of the indescribable. But encrust a hundred or more vehicles with flowers, add several hundred pretty girls, throw in a score of marching clubs, a dozen bands, and an equal number of Fawcett Robinson's iridescent creations in terms of the chromatic scale, and the result is a subject for lyric treatment, with the flutes predominant.

Such a procession moved through the business district of Los Angeles yesterday morning as a preface, twenty-four hours removed, to the Elks' own Grand Lodge parade today. On the programme, the affair was entered as "Midsummer Floral Dream and Allegorical Pageant." This is another of the paucity of our language, for, while the stuff of which dreams are made was all there and Fawcett Robinson attended to the allegorical features in his well-known efficient way, there were other things no whit less interesting.

It was a parade whose success was that of cities and States, many of them separated by the breadth of the continent. For instance, the Richmond Light Infantry Blues Battalion, the South's premier military organization, captured first prize in the marching division. The Salt Lake High School Cadets, who are here as escorts to Gov. Spry and the Utah Expositions Commission, won second prize in the same division. They just nosed into this place ahead of the Women of Woodcraft, who gave one of the best exhibitions of perfectly aligned marching ever seen here.

As for the float division, municipal and civic, the Tropic, Huntington Park, Burbank and Redondo Chambers of Commerce and the Glendale Elks simply took all the prize money in sight. Not only did these little suburban cities make a cleanup in this division, but they turned out floats that would have captured money in any floral parade that has ever been seen hereabouts, which means any in the world.

MASSED BAND PARADE.

Extremes met in the massed band parade, which preceded the big show. This included Salt Lake Cadet, Glendale Municipal, Santa Fe Trail of Pueblo, Colo.; Watertown (S.D.) Elks, No. 533; George W. Cook Drum Corps of Denver, and El Paso Queen Sabers. In addition to the Municipal Band of this city, Hiner's Band, Pacific Electric Railway Band, Los Angeles Fire Department "Queen Martha" Band, Los Angeles Police Department Band and two aggregations of Scottish pipers.

The marching of these combined bands up Broadway to Tenth street at 9 o'clock, from Temple street, playing "I Love You, California," gave a preliminary fillip to the whole affair that brought redoubled salves of applause from the waiting throng.

And it was a throng, too! Packed along Hill from Pico to Tenth street, along that street to Broadway and walling the sidewalks of the loop line of march from Tenth to First street, east to Main, and south to Eighth, and the disbanding block from Main to Los Angeles street, were 75,000 persons at a conservative estimate.

In the official reviewing stand on Hill street, between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, sat the new and retiring Grand Lodge officers of the Elks and their staffs, besides hundreds of State and individual lodge delegations. It was an inspiring sight, the pretty dresses of the women against a background that seemed to be alternately black and white, the black composed of the staid habiliment of some of the men, the white of the new cream-colored garbs of Los Angeles' own, the boys' of No. 93.

PERFECT IN DETAIL.

As for the parade itself, it was one of the kind of successes that are few and far between. No parade was ever more diversified; none was ever better handled. A half-hour before the parade started the streets along the line of march were absolutely cleared of all vehicles, leaving a straight fair prospect of sanded pavements that was a revelation to even those who have lived here for years, and have seen the town in fair weather and bad, and at all hours of the day and night.

There were also fewer soap-box grand stands, which means that the recession of the alluvial tide of humanity after the affair was over did not leave the business district looking like a popular picnic ground the day after the Fourth of July.

As for the parade in figures, there were 142 entries, ranging from saddle horses to floral floats, and from military organizations to the Al Borsk patrol footing it neatly over real, but not burning sands. The number of persons participating on foot or aboard the numerous vehicles was 1002; the parade itself stretched over two miles on a line of march of the same length; the time required to pass a given point was exactly one hour. Grand Marshal Mat Everhardy's order, "Forward march," was given at Pico and Hill streets at 10:10 o'clock; the "Charley Chaplins" ambled up and registered "thirty" at Eighth and Los Angeles streets at 12:20 o'clock, and the parade was over.

Applause was almost continuous, with the thirteen elaborately decorated entries of the Los Angeles fire department drawing down the salutes of the grown-ups as well as the small boy. One interesting feature that attracted the attention of many was the applause given the story-book personages that acted as color-guards of the Richmond Blues. They were garbed in near-British grenadier uniforms as red as the cheeks of a 18-year-old

PARADE AMazes IN ITS COSMOPOLITAN VARIETY.

Its Ensemble as Though the Best of All Past Pageants Were Rolled into One—Many of Finest Features Contributed by Cities not of Southern California—Here They are with Description of Each.

CLEARING the way for the hundreds in their wake, two police machines in charge of Capt. Butler and Murray led the grand pageant yesterday. They were followed immediately by a cordon of mounted police and then the grand marshal and his aides.

Mat Everhardy, the grand marshal and major-domo, was early on the scene at Pico and Hill streets and had everything arranged for starting at the appointed hour. He was ably assisted by Max French, Guy Tonkin, Billy Crecal, William Francis Brown, Guy West and John J. Gilligan. The grand marshal and his staff rode dashing steeds and made a spectacular appearance.

OUR ALL-ELK BAND. Wearing their beautiful, new uniforms of white, trimmed with purple, the Los Angeles Elk's band of forty pieces came next. Charles P. Kitts is the manager of the remarkable aggregation of musicians and he and his band never made a better showing. Assisting Mr. Kitts was Jack Doyle, L. L. Broodren, Fast Exalted Ruler of Lodge 99, made an instantaneous hit in the role of drum major. Standing nearly seven feet in his stockings, he towered above the whole parade and could not be confused with other members. He is chuck-full of music and seemed to strike the reverberating notes with his baton as he waved it through the air. One of the busiest members of the band was Fred Kroeger, who carried the banner. He kept perfect time with it and some thought he was the drum major. In addition to those named above the personnel of the band follows:

James Foy, Otto Fritz, George W. Pierce, D. D. Albrecht, A. H. Brunner, C. S. Barker, Charles F. Backus, S. J. Rogers, T. Barth, R. J. Clark, M. R. Costerian, J. D. Dawson, F. A. English, W. Vedic, J. I. Prietas, J. S. Padgett, W. E. Fagan, C. A. Fagan, C. D. Frust, C. A. Farmer, J. R. Farrell, A. Gryfe, Bob Grayson, H. C. Guard, Matt Grennan, Percy V. Hammond, A. J. A. Hobbs, C. L. Lindber, Charles Lotzke, G. H. Mew, J. F. Mallis, J. E. Mahon, Orvie Overall, J. A. Richards, J. Frank Smith, Sam Tyler and W. G. Valrance.

COUNTY SUPERVISORS. The Board of County Supervisors were next in line, all riding in the same automobile. They are a distinguished-appearing body of men and made a favorable impression.

MAYOR AND MRS. SEBASTIAN. Their faces beamed with smiles as they rode in the motorcade. They bowed to the end of the parade to the applauding multitudes. The Mayor's car was decorated with the Stars and Stripes and a liberal sprinkling of purple and white.

CITY COUNCIL. With Mrs. Estelle Lawton Lindsey occupying the seat of honor in the first car, members of the City Council were next in the procession. They rode in two machines, which were gaily decorated with the Stars and Stripes and a liberal sprinkling of purple and white.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. Los Angeles' Chamber of Commerce, recognized as the most progressive body of its kind in the world, was represented by five of its leading members. John W. Mitchell was the chairman and he and his aides displayed the city's hospitality in a mild way by giving the smiles that have made the city famous.

TRIO OF EQUESTRIENNES. Mounted on fiery steeds that pranced to the lively music of the many bands, three of Los Angeles' most beautiful and most daring equestriennes were the cynosure of admiring eyes. Mrs. Virginia Stone, a fair and daring rider, mounted on a magnificent white horse, was particularly attractive. She wore a gorgeous creation of purple, with a hat to match and adorned with an immense white plume. The lines and bridle were as white as the steed, the picture in white and purple being most appropriate and beautiful. Mrs. Stone is one of the finest horsewomen in the Southland and is an expert in hurdling and jumping races. Accompanying Mrs. Stone were Miss Josephine Hill and Miss Margaret Hogan, both presenting a stunning appearance on dashing horses.

1915 COWBOY BAND. The Cowboy Band, the official musical aggregation of the 1915 General Committee, made a great hit, for there were thousands of easterners among the spectators and anything that suggested the early days of the West is of special interest to them. The boys in the band outdid themselves yesterday and were applauded vigorously from all sides.

LOS ANGELES QUEEN. Miss Sibyl Mather, Los Angeles' festival queen for 1915, was never more charming than as the fairy queen of the float that led the procession of flower pictures. Queen Sibyl was surrounded by a bevy of pretty young ladies, who composed her royal court. They are Charlotte Wells, GAY FEET TREAD GASOLINE ROW.

ELK STREET DANCE INSPIRING TO VAST THROGG.

Bands Blare at Intervals for Four Blocks and Revelers Have Royal Time—Searchlights Flare Playfully and Sky Bombs Flash. Everybody Catches Spirit of Event.

That part of Gasoline Row lying between Seventh and Eleventh streets was last night converted into four solid blocks of undisturbed joy, when to the music of blaring bands, throngs of happy people danced from midnight to midnight on the specially sanded streets.

There were lots of people. At times the dancers were so thickly placed on the street that it appeared the open air, after all, wasn't big enough for the lovers of the dance. And there were as many styles of dancing as there were couples. However, no one was put off the floor, as there wasn't any floor.

The huge crowd was extremely good natured. And the bands that played on each block helped out the happy throngs continuously. Even the policemen, dotting the crowd, entered into the spirit of the fun and had just as good a time as anybody.

Wires holding gaily-colored lanterns were strung across Olive street, throwing a weird glare on the crowd. Searchlights manipulated from the roofs of automobile salerooms, flashed playfully here and there, and from the roof of one building an energetic young man sent up sky bombs and flares, making more noise than was heard in the entire city last Fourth of July.

That block where music was furnished by the Fourth Regiment band of Watertown, S. D., was probably more densely populated than any of the other three. Reason for this was given by local South Dakotians, who said the music was better.

AMERICAN BEAUTY ROSES. The float bearing American Beauty roses was a beautiful creation. The natural flowers sank into insignificance when surrounded by a bevy of lovely young girls. They were Rose Walker, Betty Rogers, Lillian Jeffries, Dorothy E. White, Lucy Papa, Gertrude Miner, Anita Drake and two little cherubs, May and Alice.

SECOND DIVISION. The second division was under the competent guiding hand of L. H. Freeman, who rode at the head of the Glendale band of Elk's. Glendale No. 1289 was organized three years ago and, though it is one of the youngest lodges in Elksdom, has 440 members, all enthusiastic boosters of California and their pretty city. Among the Glendale persons in their contingent are Stephen Packer, the Exalted Ruler; chaplain Mills, J. Showalter, C. B. Booth, C. O. Pullman, Archie Rosser, John Roman, chairman, and the following ladies: Bess LeRoy Boserman, Mrs. Warren Roberts, Mrs. G. C. Cable, Mrs. W. B. Evans. The Glendale Chamber of Commerce was well represented and the float and accompanying automobiles were very attractive.

SAN DIEGO SPANISH DANCERS. The San Diego exposition was represented in the parade by an automobile full of pretty Spanish dancers, all of whom sang or played musical instruments and made merry with the crowds. They hurriedly changed among the spectators hearing the invitation: "Meet me at San Diego exposition."

TROPICO. An attractive float bearing an artistic bungalow was the central figure in the Tropico entry. The bungalow housed a whole family of little children, including Dorothy Hobbs, Carrie Stone, Mary Jane Evans, Elsie Seaman, Mary Logan, Dolphina Paine. The girls played many selections on the ukulele. Four automobiles led the bungalow float, and there were two trailers. Francis B. McEnty, Dr. William Malby and Frank E. Peters had charge of the Tropico display.

BURBANK. Burbank's entry consisted of a most picturesque garden scene, well arranged on a very attractive float. The garden was green with flowers and shrubs, and made all wish they could visit growing community.

REDONDO BEACH. The Redondo Beach float was most appropriate. It carried a small seagoing vessel decorated with seaweed and several dainty nymphs of the ocean.

LONG BEACH. Long Beach is proud of its sea shells and ocean shore, and its float was suggestive of both. Immense shells were set upon its float with pretty bathing girls on the inside.

GARDENA. A huge strawberry, probably five feet in diameter, was the center of Gardena's float. Little girls advertised their home town merely by showing what sweet little things they grow there in addition to strawberries.

HUNTINGTON PARK. An artistic bungalow with kiddies all about formed the attraction entered by the hustling little city of Huntington Park.

MILE-HIGH CITY WINS IN COMPETITIVE DRILL.

THE drill team of Denver Lodge No. 17, commanded by Capt. Kincaid, won first prize in the competitive drill held yesterday afternoon in Exposition Park. More than 10,000 wildly shouting Elks and their ladies packed the big grand stand and overflowed on the field.

Despite their excellent drill, Denver by no means had a walk-over. The drill team of San Francisco Lodge No. 3, performed so well that until the final decision of the judges was announced the result was in doubt. The Glendale drill team of Lodge No. 1289 carried off third highest honors.

The four drill teams competing, Denver, San Francisco, Glendale and Long Beach, were escorted to the park by the White Squadron of Los Angeles Lodge No. 99. The local company were dressed in their cadet uniforms of white cream and wore shakos.

The Los Angeles Lodge Band, commanded by Drum Major L. L. Broodren, headed the procession. The judges were Col. W. G. Schreiber, Seventh Regiment, N.G.C.; Col. A. W. Bradbury, N.G.C. (retired); Lieut.-Col. S. M. Saltmarsh, Seventh Regiment, N.G.C.; and Capt. B. T. Demmitt, inspector rifle practice, N.G.C. The five drill companies comprising the battalion inspected were commanded by Capt. M. Ray Costerian, N.G.C. (retired), and acting military director for the occasion.

Long Beach Pacific Patrol of Lodge No. 885 drilled first. They were commanded by Capt. Reub. Following Long Beach came the Glendale company led by Capt. Wattles. Denver came next and were cheered to the echo by the large crowd of Denver Elks at the park.

The San Francisco company were last on the field. They also made an excellent showing in their evolutions. Following the decision of the judges, the battalion was marched to the SPECIAL ORDERS FOR LODGE 99.

Exalted Ruler M. F. Shannon of Los Angeles Lodge, No. 99, B.P.O.E., the hosts of the Elks' reunion, issued the following orders to all members of the lodge yesterday:

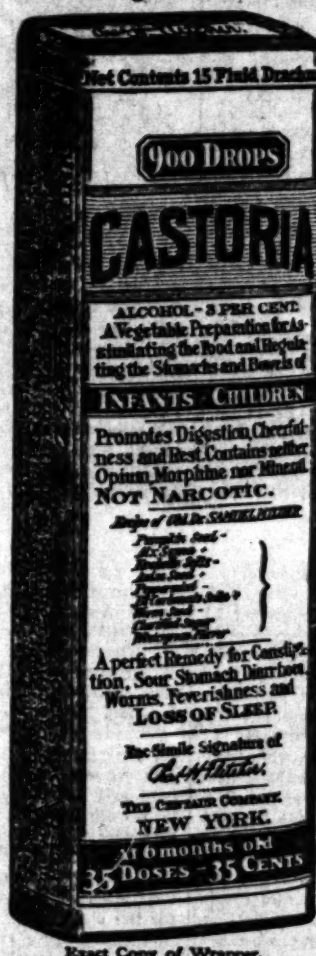

Meet on Hill street between Eighteenth and Washington at 9 o'clock sharp this morning. Each man wearing the official garb of 99 as heretofore designated. The lodge will lead the parade with its band, followed by the White Squadron drill team. It is greatly desired that at least 1000 men represent the home lodge in the parade. Turn out!

Local Elks' Clubhouse, where the visitors were the guests of the local lodge at a banquet. The prizes were as follows: First prize, $200; second prize, $200; third prize, $100.

What is Castoria.

CASTORIA is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic, all Teething Troubles and Diarrhoea. It regulates the Stomach and Bowels, assimilates the Food, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. Albert W. Kahl, of Buffalo, N. Y., says: "I have used Castoria in my practice for the past 25 years. I regard it as an excellent medicine for children."

Dr. Gustave A. Eisengraber, of St. Paul, Minn., says: "I have used your Castoria repeatedly in my practice with good results, and can recommend it as an excellent, mild and harmless remedy for children."

Dr. E. J. Dennis, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have used and prescribed your Castoria in my sanitarium and outside practice for a number of years and find it to be an excellent remedy for children."

Dr. R. A. Buchanan, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have used your Castoria in the case of my own baby and find it pleasant to take, and have obtained excellent results from its use."

Dr. J. E. Simpson, of Chicago, Ill., says: "I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in children and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market."

Dr. R. H. Zakildsen, of Omaha, Neb., says: "I find your Castoria to be a standard family remedy. It is the best thing for infants and children I have ever known and I recommend it."

Dr. L. R. Robinson, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria certainly has merit. Is not its age, its continued use by mothers through all these years, and the many attempts to imitate it, sufficient recommendation? What can a physician add? Leave it to the mothers."

Dr. E. A. F. Fardus, of New York City, says: "For several years I have recommended your Castoria and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

Dr. N. B. Sizer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I object to what are called patent medicines, where makers alone know what ingredients are put in them, but I know the formula of your Castoria and advise its use."

ELDER A TARTAR IN CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Federal District Attorney Wrestles 'All Day with Memory that Forgets Many Things and Recalls Many Others—Break with McCarthy Because of Bogus Confession—Testimony Studded with Details.

Charles L. Elder, president of the Los Angeles Investment Company, was called to the witness stand in the Federal District Court today for the first time in the trial of the company's stockholders. He was cross-examined by United States District Attorney J. Edgar Hoover, who is prosecuting the case. Elder, who is a well-known figure in the Los Angeles business community, was seen in a state of nervousness as he took the stand. He was asked a series of questions by the attorney, some of which he answered with "I don't know" or "I don't remember." Hoover, who is known for his thoroughness, pressed Elder for details of the company's financial affairs and the alleged misdeeds of its officers. Elder's testimony was studded with details, but he often seemed to forget important facts, leading to a break in his testimony. He was eventually allowed to leave the stand after a long session.

Hoover's cross-examination of Elder was a dramatic moment in the trial. The attorney asked Elder to recall specific dates and transactions, but Elder's memory seemed to fail him at several points. He was asked about the company's financial statements and the alleged misappropriation of funds. Elder's responses were often vague and evasive, leading Hoover to press him for more concrete answers. The trial continued with Elder's testimony, which was filled with details but also with many "I don't remember" responses. Hoover's questioning was relentless, and Elder's nervousness was evident throughout the session.

The trial of the Los Angeles Investment Company continues today in the Federal District Court. Charles L. Elder, the company's president, is on the witness stand, being cross-examined by United States District Attorney J. Edgar Hoover. Elder's testimony is filled with details, but he often forgets important facts, leading to a break in his testimony. Hoover is pressing Elder for more concrete answers to his questions about the company's financial affairs and the alleged misdeeds of its officers. The trial is expected to continue for several more days.

FALL OF BASTILLE CELEBRATION.

ALLIED NATIONS JOIN WITH FRENCH TO CELEBRATE THE FALL OF THE BASTILLE.

The British and French have fought each other for hundreds of years, but always in a chivalrous fashion. Edmund Mitchell declared yesterday afternoon at a celebration held in honor of the one hundred and twenty-sixth anniversary of the fall of the Bastille in the Shrine Auditorium. Representatives of the powers that are now allied with France in the European war joined with local Frenchmen in celebrating the historic event. Mr. Mitchell represented the British colony on the programme.

"England and France have been the best of friends and the bitterest of enemies," Mr. Mitchell continued, "but through the varying centuries they never have lost respect for each other. They have acted under all circumstances so as to hold each other's respect and honor. The honor and heroism of warfare employed by England and France against each other are in striking contrast with the methods used by some of the countries now engaged in the present great struggle. I come from a part of the British Isles where France is especially loved. I am a Scotchman, Scotland always has had great admiration for France. The feeling toward some other countries has been very different. An incident illustrates the feeling there against the present common enemy of England and France. The boys of a school were playing a game of war. No one of the boys among 200 was willing to play the part of a Prussian soldier. 'France and England stand for the same ideals of liberty, justice and freedom of all nations. For this reason it is a great pleasure for the British to join with the French in celebrating a great national event. The fall of the Bastille was part of the great uprising of the masses for liberty and justice.'"

Most of the interesting programme was in French. Louis Sentous, French Consul, and president of honor, delivered an address in his native tongue, as did also Dr. Hector Alliot. Mayor Sebastian announced as one of the speakers, was not present, and his address was read by Dr. Alliot. In French. Following were the principal musical and literary features of the programme: Dramatic recital, Mrs. York; reading, Leon Curtis; Scottish dances by fifteen young girls in national costumes, under direction of Mrs. Benjamin Scott; "Star Spangled Banner," Mrs. A. Ballard; violin solo, "Gypsy Dance," Maurice Lepetit; "La Marseillaise," Henri Cottave; tableau, representing Belgium, and "The Living Flag," by young girls in costume. The afternoon programme was preceded by a street parade, in which several hundred young women in costume rode in motor cars. The celebration also included a dance last evening. The proceeds of the afternoon and evening meetings were donated to the Red Cross.

Before Ad Club and Guests at Luncheon and to Public at Exposition Park Today. William Jennings Bryan, former Secretary of State, will speak today in Los Angeles today. At noon he will talk at a luncheon of the Los Angeles Ad Club at a luncheon to be given in the main dining room of the Los Angeles Athletic Club. About 250 leading men have been asked to attend, as well as many ladies, who are to lunch at the same place with Mrs. Bryan. Immediately after the luncheon, Mr. Bryan will talk at Exposition Park on "The Causeless War." The speech will be the leading incident of the picnic of the Nebraska State Society, but will be for the public at large. President Pieper of the Ad Club.

and Mayor Sebastian will motor from the beach this morning with Mr. Bryan and his son. Mrs. Clifford A. Williams will accompany Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Bryan, Jr. At the club luncheon Jack Wilson will be chairman. Music will be furnished by Mrs. Bryan H. Wilson and her daughters, with Earl Calkins at the piano. Mr. Bryan's will be the only formal talk. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will go to San Diego to be guests of the exposition at the Hotel del Coronado for four days. Mr. Bryan is to deliver two addresses in the southern city.

FOR COLORADO ELKS. Tomorrow night will be Elks' night at the Colorado Association of Southern California meeting in the Friday Morning Club House. There will be a special programme, dancing and cards.

PART III

FREDDIE WELSH TELLS HOW HE WILL BEAT WHITE

"I'LL BEAT WHITE JUST LIKE I LICKED RIVERS."

Neither of Them Can Fight a Losing Battle and to Bang Them on the Nose the First Thing and then Keep Backing Them Around the Ring is to Put the Fight on Ice.

BY HOWARD ANGUS.

CHARLIE WHITE is another Joe Rivers, and I'll beat him in Denver in exactly the same way I did Rivers at Vernon.

That is what Freddie Welsh, lightweight champion of the world, had to say at Venice yesterday.

"Before the Rivers fight, I was told that he fought like a champion when he was winning, but like a dub when he was losing. At the first going I met him in the center of the ring and gave him three stiff jabs on the nose. Then I kept him backing away. I crowded him all the time, jabbing, jabbing. I made him fight a losing fight. It took the heart out of him."

KNOWS HIM.

"I have fought White three times, studying him every second of that time. I have learned that he is another Joe Rivers, that he has everything but the fighting heart. When I step into the ring he'll get a jab on the nose. Then I'll start going after him. I'll not rush him, because I never do. I'll just keep stepping closer, pushing him back. He likes to stop backward, anyway. He'll never have a chance to be on top, and will lose his heart. Why, White will not be as hard to beat as Joe. He's not as aggressive."

The famous White wallop has no terrors for Freddie. He laughed. "He has to set himself to deliver it. He even draws his arm away back. You always know just what is coming. All you have to do is smother it with your glove before it gets started."

WILL FIGHT.

Unless there is some hitch Welsh and White will fight twenty rounds at Denver, September 27. A newspaper man is promoting the fight, and has offered Welsh $15,000, win, lose or draw. Freddie has accepted. It will be his first twenty-round fight since he took the title from Ritchie.

Welsh says that White and Dundee are the only real contenders for his crown. He thinks less of Dundee than White.

"Nature has beaten him for me already," he said. "He has short arms and short legs. He has to jump to hit a larger man. It's too bad, because he has everything—game, speed, the ability to take punishment."

GONE STALE.

Welsh has come to the Coast because he had gone stale from too much fighting. He says that he got so very tired of the word fight that he reached the point where he could hardly lift his gloves. He admits that Ritchie had the best of him in New York.

"When it came time for that fight," he said, "I was in such a condition that I had either to lose or to win. I was training or enter the ring so stale I could not raise a guard. So I loafed. And then I took off fifteen pounds the last three days. I didn't have the strength left to keep him back."

But the champion thinks that two months of loafing on the sands of Venice will bring back all the old fire. He is going to let himself put on weight until he weighs 145 pounds. It will bring back strength and build up his run-down blood.

LOAFING.

He began yesterday. He spent the whole day on the sands in a bathing suit with his wife and two children, Freddie, Jr., and Betty. Freddie, Jr., is only five weeks old and the delight of Welsh's heart. The reason is that he has a dimple in his chin like his father.

"I told my wife if this baby didn't have a dimple on his chin that I would chuck him in the ocean."

But perhaps the most remarkable thing about Freddie Welsh is his hands. There is not a bruise or blemish on them. He says that he didn't hit a hard blow in the East, saving them for the twenty-round bouts. He was not taking any chance of injuring them in a fight that had nothing to do with titles.

"I told my wife if this baby didn't have a dimple on his chin that I would chuck him in the ocean."

Physical Director Hansen of the school acted as referee at Tuesday's encounter, the news of which only became public late this afternoon, with the announcement of the second fight. Miss Kline of Louisiana won from Miss McDonald of Mississippi in three rounds on points.

Hansen said the bout was clean and scientific. He was the only man present. He will be the only editor being barred, even if Stevens, champion boxer representing Louisiana, will meet Miss Coleman of Mississippi in Thursday's scrap.

On the Tennis Courts.

"PECK" GRIFFIN WALLOPS CHAMP NORRIS WILLIAMS.

California Players Make a Clean Sweep of Exposition Tournament, as now McLoughlin, Strachan, Griffin and Johnston are Sole Survivors—Score was Close but Quite Decisive.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, July 14.—Three hotly contested sets with the majority of the games running to deuce-advantage, resulted today in the downfall of R. Norris Williams, Harvard University player and national champion, at the hands of Clarence J. Griffin, the California player, in the fourth round of the exposition tennis championship being played on the courts of the California Lawn Tennis Club. The final score was 6-3, 5-7, 6-4.

With the elimination of Williams, none of the team of invading easterners remain in the singles. Mathew of Princeton and Washburn of Harvard already having been defeated. Four California players will meet in the semi-finals. Maurice McLoughlin, former national champion, plays J. Strachan, while C. J. Griffin meets William Johnston. The winners of these two matches will meet in the final round.

McLoughlin is a heavy favorite to win.

Griffin started right out after Williams by taking the first set in impressive style, 6-3. By careful and consistent play Williams, after a bad start in the second set, ran the score to deuce-advantage and took the game, making it five all. He then took the next two games and the set. In the final set Williams was able to take only one game, although he fought hard for every point. Melville Long was put out of the running by Strachan in straight sets which went 6-4, 7-5. Long was handicapped by a stiff ankle, the result of a sprain received some days ago, and he was unable to do himself justice.

McLoughlin had no trouble in disposing of W. Davis, 6-4, 6-4.

The seventeen-year-old California girl, Marjorie Wales, worked herself into the final round by defeating Miss Marjorie Thorn, 6-3, 1-6, 6-4. She will play the winner of the Niemeyer-Myers match.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RACE FRAME-UP, CHARGES EVERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, July 14.—Johnny Evers of the Braves is charged with accusing the National League officials with ordering a close race. A story printed by a Boston paper follows:

"They're trying to get the crowds out; they've ordered a close race," loudly shouted Johnny Evers, captain of the Boston Braves, from the ball field at Fenway Park.

"Evers made his speech at the end of the seventh inning in the closing contest with the St. Louis Cardinals. Monday after Umpire Rigler declared Bob Becher safe at the plate on a close decision. The verdict cost the Braves the game."

SHOUTS DEFI.

"They're trying to get the crowds out; they've ordered a close race," Trojan John shouted not only once, but three or four times. "Leave 'em alone."

FREDDIE WELSH IS TO APPEAR.

LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION WILL ASSIST AT VICE BOXING.

Lightweight Champion Freddie Welsh will be seen in action down at Venice Friday night, when he will referee the main event of the weekly boxing matches at the auditorium. This gives visiting Elks an opportunity to gaze upon the lightweight champ and, while it was hoped to see Freddie don the gloves, this is hardly probable.

Some interesting slugging can be looked for in the final event, when Jimmy Doyle meets Joe Lopez in the lightweight class. This pair was to have met a week ago, but Lopez failed to put in an appearance on account of a bad cold. He is jockeyed at the accusations made by Doyle and will enter the ring tomorrow night intent on displaying his superiority beyond

TIGERS HIT THE BOTTOM.

Seraphs Manage to Put Over a Victory.

Gus Helling Canned Before the Battle.

Henley Hit with Quite Some Fervor.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

The Angels yesterday halted the mad, upward rush of the Tigers, beating them, 6 to 4, in the overcast opener. It was an operation involving some pitching, several errors and considerable mental anguish, the result being in doubt until the last athlete had been stretched out.

That the result should be in doubt until the last when a club wins by a margin of two runs may seem strange. But it is ever thus when the Angels and Tigers are winning. There is no more pathetic sight in the world than the Angels trying to win a game from the Tigers. No difference how big a lead they pile up. Doc's athletes always manage in some way to make it exciting toward the finish.

AN EXAMPLE.

Yesterday, just to make it interesting and give the game a touch of drama, they filled up the bases in the ninth and scored two runs. This kept the ladies and gents on the qui vive for fifteen minutes or so, and at times it seemed that the Angels might never get the Tigers out. But they did, whereupon the ladies and gents quit que, they're and went home to eat instead.

As a result of this pastime, the Tigers sagged back into last place, but they expect to get out again. In fact, they are so confident of winning that they declare the war will end in October. Oakland's unsportsmanlike conduct in winning two games from Salt Lake in a couple of days did much to upset the proud standing of the Tigers.

BURNED.

Don Rader from Arizona, sometimes known as the human wildcat, was at second base for the Tigers. Don, being the first guy from Arizona to play that position for the club, attracted some attention. He was a sun-burned man pastimating on the desert that he looked like he had been run through a brick kiln, and several of the visiting delegates from Ohio had him sized up as a Washoe Indian.

The appearance of Don in that position, while a fine event in his own life, was not without its pashos. For Gasoline Gus Helling it meant loss of fame, loss of reputation and loss of meal ticket. With Rader at second, Pettrell was transferred to third and Gasoline Gus transferred to the grand stand.

GOOD-BYE GUS.

Helling was unconditionally canned before the game. This was a keen surprise, not only to the public, but to Helling himself. And just to think it was only three years ago that Gasoline Gus was given an automobile for being the greatest player in the league. He sold the automobile and spent the money, and now has nothing left but a memory. Therefore, does it pay to be a great ball player? In the end is he any better off than the dub who never won an automobile? If an automobile was something that a guy could eat, and Gus had kept his until now, he would be happier.

Outside of his homely complexion, Rader made a favorable impression, walking twice, batting out a single and a triple, scoring two runs and drawing in another. Gasoline Gus witnessed it all from the grand stand, but made no comment.

SAD FOR SWEDS.

Swede Elsborg had a sad day in center field, making an error, misplaying a line drive and throwing the pill to the wrong location on another occasion. In fact, he hardly seemed like the same old Swede.

Zeb and Berger, the great rival shortstops, also were somewhat palsied in their movements. Neither played ball with his accustomed sleet. Zeb booted a couple, while Joe booted one that we know of and fanned four times in succession. Scoggy did this three times, and Jack Ryan maintained the grand average by fanning him in the eighth.

Cack Henley and J. Lynn Scoggin were the headliners at the start. Scoggy pitched cultured ball until the seventh, when the Tigers soaked him for a couple of triples. Dillon regarded this as the crisis, and Jack Ryan, who had been warming up in the bull pen, went forth and finished the game.

EXIT CACK.

CATCHES NOT BIG ENOUGH.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

AVALON, July 14.—While fishing near Seal Rocks W. C. Bochen of New York City brought to gaff two small blue fin tuna. The largest of the two weighed forty pounds. This is the sixth blue fin tuna that has been landed by Angler Bochen since July 1, but none of them so far has tipped the scales at 100 pounds. A 100-pound fish is necessary to be recorded on the books of the Catalina Tuna Club. Other varieties of fish, white sea bass, barracuda and yellowtail, are giving anglers considerable sport.

Not always do I urge a man to smoke Van Dyck. Many men are not ready to make so good a cigar.

And others—ah, well, they seem to think good smoking means only much smoking. I pity such and praise to him who smokes for milder domestic cigar.

Myself, I find that great pleasures are far greater when approached with moderation.

I would not go to a banquet each night. I hold myself from chatter-boxing talk, for quietness help in the deep talk between friends. I choose not to ride every moment in luxurious automobiles.

I am not always seen with a cigar in my mouth. Even when so, I do not puff rapidly to see how fast it will burn.

But when I smoke—why what more need I say than that I smoke Van Dycks?

Walter Carlisle.

CARLISLE IS NOW A DUCK.

TRADED TO BEAVERS FOR THE VETERAN OUTFIELDER. WALTER DOANE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
PORTLAND (Or.) July 14.—Walter Doane today was traded to Vernon by Walter McCredie for that other veteran, Walter Carlisle, and the latter Walter will join the Beavers at Salt Lake on Tuesday next. Doane has been with the Beavers since 1912, when Cleveland came to the rescue of McCredie. Doane is the best batsman; Carlisle superior fielder and runner.

And again have reinforcements been rushed to the Beavers by the Cleveland American League club with the announcement that Walter Hammond, a second baseman, will join the team at Salt Lake next Monday, and he is counted on to fill at shortstop. Manager McCredie of the Portland team told of the aid to be given by the Cleveland club and intimated that not only would there be a new infielder, but a new outfielder as well.

Hammond is a graduate of Colgate University, who broke into organized ball with the Springfield club of the New England League. So spectacular was the young collegian's work with Springfield that he was grabbed by the Cleveland Americans.

RAY MORGAN HAS PLAYED LAST GAME.

MAKES GRIFFITH SORE BY GETTING SMASHED UP ON JOTHIDE.

If Manager Griffith is to be taken at his word, Ray Morgan has played his last game with the Washington team. Morgan went out for a joyride, there was an automobile smash-up, and the second baseman reported injured and unable to play. Griffith therefore suspended him without pay, putting Douglas Neff on second base. Morgan, it is said, has acted badly all season. Recently it was reported that Washington sought to make a trade for him with the St. Louis Browns, but Manager Ricker said he wanted no such player as Morgan on his team.

FORD LEADS ONCE MORE.

SAN JOSE MAN CONTINUES TO STAY IN FRONT.

Sets a New Mark of 195 Birds Out of a Possible 200—Second Honors Go to W. G. Warren and Tony Prior Captures Third Prize Which Takes the Form of a Cup.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
VENICE, July 14.—The winner in the second day's contests of the three-day tournament of the fourth annual affair staged on the Venice grounds of the Los Angeles Gun Club was C. N. Ford, the San Jose sharpshooter who won the high honors on the opening day. The achievement of Ford today was that of breaking 195 birds out of a possible 200. By this spectacular performance he has annexed another Interstate Association trophy. Second honors fell today to W. G. Warren, who succeeded in hitting 192 of the imitation birds. His reward will be in the form of a cup. To Tony Prior fell the third honor, with 190 broken birds to his record. Robert Bunagay of the beach had to be satisfied with fourth place, his vanquished discs numbering 189. One of the features of the day's programme was the breaking of twenty straight birds by Charles Julian, the one-armed left-hander of San Diego.

The score for the day by squads follows, the names preceded by a star being those of professionals who do not figure in either money or prize:

Squad 1—*H. E. Poston, 182; C. A. Sage, 170; W. G. Warren, 192; A. H. Jones, 177; Tony Prior, 190.

Squad 2—C. N. Ford, 195; Mrs. Ada Schilling, 175; A. Flickenger, 175; R. C. Reed, 193; J. Ploekert, 187.

Squad 3—W. G. Harris, 184; A. O. Wilkes, 172; E. A. Avery, 184; T. Wilkes, 183; H. M. Williams, 172.

Squad 4—*E. Morgan, 186; *Charles Spencer, 194; Robert Bungay, 189; *Charles Knight, 189; R. N. Fuller, 185.

Squad 5—*Ed Mitchell, 186; Heine Pfirrmann, 186; T. W. Neil, 189; Frank Mellus, 183; Stanton Bruner, 188.

Squad 6—*Guy Holohan, 186; H. Havens, 186; *George Carter, 180; Charles Julian, 178; H. Ogilvie, 180.

TRIPLES CAUSE BROWNS' DEFEAT.

LOSE FOUR GAMES TO WHITE SOX IN ROW ON THREE-BASE SWATS.

Somebody always triples and beats the Browns. They lost four straight games to the White Sox that way, then came home to meet the Cleveland Indians—and lost when Elmer Smith tripled with the bases full in the third inning off Bill James. The final score was 5 to 2.

RICKEY SIGNS UP COLLEGE PLAYER.

COOK OF OHIO STATE LATEST COLLEGIATE TO BECOME BROWN.

Manager Rickey of the Browns has added still another collegian to his roster. He is a pitcher, answers to the name of Cook and hails from Ohio State University. Last summer Rickey had him developing in the Tri-State League, but he did not join the Browns this year until the close of his school year.

MACK TO KEEP SCHANG ON THIRD.

According to Philadelphia reports, Wally Schang as a third baseman is entirely satisfactory to Connie Mack, and he will be kept in Baker's old job as long as he is not needed on the catching staff. Schang is said to be tickled with the berth and he declares it is just like taking a vacation after catching some of Mack's wild young pitchers.

Tigers Hit the Bottom.

enth, that Kane might bat for him. He left a trail of four Angels' tails, the product of some hitting and a couple of errors. Elliott Dent finished the game, quitting in the ninth only to let Carlisle bat for him. This was the first time that Carlisle had been seen in action since he made that serious error early last week. The error, it seems, went to Walter's head, causing him severe pains there. While not entirely recovered, he was strong enough to stand up to the plate and walk to first base. Had he been feeling better he probably would have made a hit.

The Angels scored with two gone in the first. Walter whacked a single to center, and chased around to third when the pill got away from Rieber. Reef Koerner drove to Berger, whose throw pulled Gleichmann off the bag. Walter scored on this. Rube grounded to Gleichmann.

ANOTHER RUN.

McMullen beat out a high bouncer over Purrell with one out in the second. He took second on Walter's out. This was unnecessary, however, as Reef at once tore off a triple to left center that would have scored him from first as easily as from second.

Scoggy pitched perfect ball until the third, when he wobbled just a little. He slipped a pass to Rader, which is a nice way to treat a whirlwind in the bean. Boles picked up the ball which Scoggy had not quite caught, and threw to third. He was too late to force Rader, as he had hoped to do. There was still plenty of time to force Mize at second, but the feat did not dawn on Metzger until it was too late. Wilhoit sent Rader across with a single to center. Scoggy then forcefully fanned both Berger and Rieber, and Bayless forced Wilhoit.

HEAVY THROW.

Zeb gave Scoggy something to worry about the fifth when he took Wilhoit's grounder and threw the ball many feet beyond Reef. Zeb said he believed that he could do better if they would let him try it over again. Two were out when the accident happened. Scoggy pursued his usual tactics and fanned Berger.

The Angels took a more definite lead in the sixth. Rube started it with a single to right, and Zeb sacrificed. Boles singled, and Rube came running home. Walter stole second. In fact, he and Mize were the only guys to steal yesterday. You have got to hand it to them for stealing on each other. Boles took third on a wild pitch, and Henley walked Metzger, mainly because he couldn't get the pill over. Scoggy, however, thought that Cack had walked Metzger to get at him, and this made him so mad that he singled. This counted Boles and put Metzger on second. He took third on another wild pitch by Cack, who imagined he was holding a field day. Metzger was thrown out at the plate on Mager's grounder to Gleichmann, and McMullen fouled to the same party.

TWO TRIPLES.

As Scoggy had allowed only two hits, the public was unprepared for what happened to him in the seventh. Gleichmann started the inning powerfully by tripling to right center. Rader followed with a blow that went for a triple, when Ellis and Mager couldn't decide which should stop the pill with the result that it proceeded as before. Scoggy walked Mize, and then resigned in favor of Reef. At the same time Kane went in to hit for Cack. He fouled to Metzger, and Wilhoit popped to Reef. Ryan, just to prove that Scoggy was nothing on him, fanned Berger. Going in with two on base and nobody out and skunking the other side is some achievement.

Dent got along all right until the ninth, when a pass to Ryan, a batch of singles by McMullen, Walter and Koerner and a wrong guess by Rieber yielded two runs.

Ryan started into a batch of ninth-inning trouble when he walked Gleichmann. Rader scratched a single past McMullen. Mize was saluted on strikes. A pass to Carlisle, batting for Dent, put three on. Gleichmann scored when Zeb forced Wilhoit's grounder in front of second, and a sacrifice fly by Berger, who refused to fan any more, released Rader to the plate. With enough guys still on base to tie the score, Rieber lined out to Rube.

The score:

CHICAGO RACE IS POSTPONED.

FALL OPENING OF SPEEDWAY IS PUT OFF FIVE MONTHS.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
CHICAGO, July 14.—The fall automobile race meeting, originally scheduled for the new speedway here on September 14, has been set back to October 14, it was announced today. The race will be over a distance of 380 miles and for a $25,000 purse.

RUSSELL FORD GETS RELEASE.

ONCE FAMOUS HEAVY DROPS FROM RIGHT EVEN OF THE FEDERALS.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)
BUFFALO (N. Y.) July 14.—President Robertson of the Buffalo Federal League Club confirmed reports today that Pitcher Russell Ford had been given his unconditional release. His ability to win games without the use of the "emery ball" was given as the reason.

DOVE SEASON STARTS SEPT. 1.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
SAN BERNARDINO, July 14.—As a result of the misunderstanding of the opening for the dove season, which early reports regarding the new law gave out as July 15, County Game Warden W. C. Malone has issued a warning to hunters that the season does not begin until September 1 and that prosecutions will be made against any violating the new law.

AT THE STAGE DOOR

Miss Ferguson, appearing in "Outcast" at the Mason this week, will probably star in a new English play next season, entitled "Gambler's All," which is being given in London at present.

David's New Own. David Warden will appear in a new play next season, entitled "The Laughter of Fools," secured by Belasco for him. Warden was in the city a few days ago, but has left for San Francisco.

To Join Revue. A number of well-known vaudeville people have signed up for "Tops of the Tropics." Ned Wrayburn's new New York revue, among these are Trude Friggen, Will Rogers, the cowboy, and Adelaide and Hughes Vera Michelena, who appeared here in the "Follies" last spring, will also be among those taking part in the new spectacle.

Star Dust. Lillian Lorraine, well-known New York star, has been signed up by the Balboa Company to appear in pictures at a salary of $700 per week.

Sun Spot. A law in "Miracle Mary." Had everybody taken a foolish powder that nobody could remember Joe Bennett's having worked for the aviator that fatal day?

Goodbye, Charlie. Charlie Ruggles left yesterday for New York to start rehearsing in one of the leading roles in Edgar Selwyn's "Rolling Stones."

Blue Blood Note. La Lole Fuller, the noted dancer who is to appear at the Mason next week, and who has been filling an engagement at the San Francisco exposition, came to the exposition direct from Athens, Greece. Miss Fuller and her company of lovely young girls gave a performance in the stadium at Athens, appearing before thousands of people, including the king and queen of Greece. In consequence of her success on that occasion she was honored by being granted the use of the stadium for annual festivals for ten years.

May Change Mind. Though John Drew stated quite positively on the occasion of his visit here a few weeks ago that he did not intend to appear in pictures, it is possible he may yet be prevailed upon to do so. H. E. Allen, former president of the Mutual, and now at the head of the new Pictures Producing Company, is making a strong effort to secure Mr. Drew. So far, however, the noted actor has held out against all offers.

Thrill-Factory. Geraldine Farrar yesterday played one of the most thrilling scenes of "Carmen" before the camera for the Lasky Company. This is at the end of the play where "Carmen" is stabbed by her lover. Miss Farrar's acting was as superb as anything she has ever done on the stage.

Nashville Too. When Nashville arrives next week at the Orpheum, it may be she will complete negotiations now under way to appear in films for the Oliver Morosco Photoplay Company. Morosco's bid so far is said to be the highest of many made by the famous actress for a picture engagement, being reported at $50,000.

Foxy Elmer. Elmer Harris, co-author with Morosco of "So Long Letty," left yesterday for Prince Edward Island, Can., to see how high the foxes are on his farm. "I believe it's a safe bet 'So Long Letty' won't play an engagement in the storehouse for some time to come," said Mr. Harris, as he directed his Jap servant where to send his trunkful of royalties.

Mamie's "Pompe." Vera Stanley has been engaged as prima donna at the Century. This week she is singing Mamie Lowenstein's newest and most whistleable song, "Broadway Chickens on Parade."

Breve Kathryn. Kathryn Williams of the Selig is this week filming "The Lion's Mark" over at the zoo.

Back to Nature. Donald Bowles has been swamped with offers by the motion picture companies. Mr. Bowles is absent officially on a vacation, but probably won't be able to withstand the inducements offered him.

Face Cards. Geraldine Farrar, escorted by Gov. Johnson, will lead the grand march at the ball of the Motion Picture Exhibitors' Convention to be held in San Francisco on Friday night.

Good for Miriam. Miriam Cooper has returned to the Reliance studio, having recovered from her recent attack of illness.

Idleness for Bobby. Robert Harron, of the Reliance, has likewise returned to work following his Catalina vacation. He is appearing in Griffith's "The Mother and the Law."

Faviola, Too. Faviola is expected at the Universal studio within the course of the next month to do some scenes in a picture drama which Lola Weber is directing.

In Shadowland. After the 1:30 performance of "The Rugmaker's Daughter" at Tally's on Friday evening, which will be about 1:45, Herbert Standing, the noted English actor will tell some of his stories, personal and otherwise. If time permits he will also give his famous "Danny Deever," by Kipling.

to a special organ accompaniment arranged by his son, Percy Standing. Mr. Standing plays the part of the old rug maker in the film which is being shown.

"Brown" Staff. Those remarkable films revealing the work of the school children of Los Angeles are being shown free of charge at Walker Auditorium on Grand avenue near Seventh street.

Question Mark. It still remains a Sphinx problem how Mercedes and Mlle. Stanton at the Orpheum perform that mind-reading musical stunt.

Not Stage Money. Clarence Drown, Orpheum manager, has engaged several ice-wagons for a picture engagement, being reported at $50,000.

Royal Staff. Betty Nansen, who appears on the screen at Miller's this week, is to come to America next year, and will be seen in New York and possibly on tour in a repertory of Ibsen plays. She is famous for her characterizations in these dramas.

War Note. Maud Allan has again delayed her trip to London on account of the disturbed conditions across the water.

Some Speed. Probably the swiftest work ever done in filmland was that accomplished yesterday by the Pathe, whereby the pictures of the Elks' Parade which occurred in the morning were shown at the Orpheum last night. The camera operator must have taken a pint of lightning, for he promises today's parade pictures tonight. These pictures will be shown all week.

As Others See Him. Mayor Sebastian is to give a party at the Orpheum tonight, and will view himself in some films taken yesterday.

DECIDES TO LIVE. Jump Off Cliff and Souse in Ocean Fall to Cause Death of Long Beach Man.

LONG BEACH, July 14.—John H. Diamond, seeking death because of marital troubles, jumped off a forty-foot cliff on East Ocean avenue near Bixby Park this morning, but found himself little hurt by the fall. Then he waded out into the ocean and soured his head under water, but the Pacific was so cold he decided to live rather than perish in its frigid waters.

"I never knew how sweet life was until I got my head out of that cold water after my plunge," Diamond told the police when he was rushed to the Seaside Hospital. Diamond is a carpenter and lives in a garage at No. 1142 Appleton street. He was recently served with a notice of a divorce suit brought by his wife, Diamond is scratched and bruised by his leap off the bluff to the sand below, but no bones are broken.

LOOKS SUSPICIOUS. It is believed by the police that Earl D. Kirby, alias F. C. Smith, awaiting transportation to Portland on a forged charge, plotted to take the life of Detective Cervantes, who arrested him. Kirby was searched today and a table knife, sharpened at the end, and a window weight, were found on his person. He had been begging police officers and jail attendants to let him go with Cervantes to get shaved and the officers grew suspicious.

A vaudeville favorite, and two movie queens who are pleasing audiences at the local theaters this week. Above are Bessie Barriscale (left) and Kathryn Williams, stars, respectively of the Thomas H. Ince and Selig movie picture companies. The former is appearing at the Woodley in "The Reward" and the latter at Clune's Auditorium in "The Rosary." Below is Genevieve Blinn, who is presenting "A Bowery Camille" at the Hipp.

Orphanage at Huntington Park. George Mosbacher will provide automobiles to convey these children to Normal Hill.

ROOF IS TORN OFF AND HITS CROWD BELOW—MANY ARE INJURED.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE) DECATUR (Ill.) July 14.—A tornado struck the grand stand at the Decatur baseball park today just as the game between Decatur and Rockford started. The roof of the grand stand was torn off and a portion of it fell upon the crowd below. Several persons were bruised, but none was seriously injured.

GIVE EXTRAVAGANZA. Friday Special Day for Elks, Saturday for Orphans at Juvenile Exposition Show.

Friday is to be "Elks' Day" at the Normal Hill Center, where an extravaganza with a cast of more than sixty children is being presented in connection with the Million Club Juvenile Exposition.

The spectacle, presented the first time Monday night, is allegorical, a beautiful representation of "California as it is—1915." Tableaux and dances fill the colorful scene. The extravaganza was written and staged by Miss Florence Marie Sleskenstein. In addition to the cast of children, a score of well-known entertainers are participating. They include Frank Havlock, the boy tenor; Florine Froley, dancer, and Edward Qualls, 6 years old, who sings "You Don't Have to Fight to be a Hero." Mrs. Baker of America's song, "It's Peace Time in America," is sung.

Saturday the special guests will be children from the various orphanages, including those from the new Jewish

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)

MADENA, July 15.—The "welcoming" on the mat outside the gates of the Madison Hotel, San Francisco, was not meant for William Bryan, erstwhile Secretary of the Interior, now enjoying life as a semi-retired citizen.

The Pasadena Board of Trade has not yet decided whether to invite the great crowd to come here to address a noon session of the board—so there is a possibility that the decision of the reasons for the decision of the fact that several citizens, in private capacity as members of the board, strongly objected

COUNCIL VOTES TO BEGIN WORK.

LEGALITIES PREVENT SAVING OF MONEY IN ROADS AT ONTARIO.

ONTARIO, July 14.—Satisfied that in order to secure county aid in the paving of a street from Euclid avenue to the east city limits a delay of three months and an additional expense to the city of several hundred dollars would be necessary, members of the City Council last night voted to proceed at once with the paving without the county's financial assistance and the contract will be formally awarded next Monday evening to L. G. Garney, whose bid for the entire job was $12,500.

Since a goodly portion of the street to be paved is in the outlying districts of the city, the Supervisors of San Bernardino county agreed to give financial assistance on that portion of the work east of Campus avenue and when Ontario officials asked that the money be returned to them in a lump sum, since preliminary paving had already been taken the request was at once complied with.

One of the work was done under the Vrooman act, the property owners would in that case be obliged to pay for the work, but the bid received by the city was exceptionally low and the chances are that should proceedings be started once more the bid would be higher.

BUS DRIVERS GO AS THEY PLEASE.

HUNTINGTON PARK PATRONS IN FUNNY FIX OVER SITUATION.

HUNTINGTON PARK, July 14.—The local jitney bus situation on the route between Huntington Park to Bell, with the east end of the original Cudahy ranch as a terminal, has developed into a muddled state of affairs. From the time the route started six months ago with one Guy Miller as the pioneer, down to the present, the jitney public has been in more or less of a "fix" as to whether they should wait for the jitney to Huntington Park, where the yellow cars are in waiting, or take the Pacific Electric Whitaker cars, pay a larger fare with no transfer privileges and be done with it. For, since the time the route started, no regular schedule has been observed, and many as thirty or forty drivers with their machines have essayed to haul passengers and make a living while doing so.

Tuesday morning there were as many as eight buses going over this three-mile route at irregular intervals. Much of the dissatisfaction is due to the entire lack of schedule. Few if any of the buses can be depended to come when wanted or expected. Every day sees a new driver, some of them coming from as far away as Watts to join the hilarious game. Others run during the morning and evening, skin off the cream of the trade, and leave the more conscientious to run during the day when the traffic is lighter and less profitable.

It would naturally be thought that with the increase in the number of buses the public would benefit, but the schedule grows even more demoralized than before. Some attempt was made recently by four of the drivers to combine their forces and observe regular routes and times of running, but this broke up when one of the compactors refused to keep faith. Meanwhile the public gets out bed early, waits long, and takes what the jitney owners deign to give them in the way of service.

RANCHO APPRAISED. Approximately 5000 acres of the original De Baker Rancho lying east of the Los Angeles city limits and south of the Whittier road has just been appraised by order of the thirty-three heirs interested in order that a just division of the property be made in the near future.

The appraisement was finished Monday, having been made in ten days by James L. Johnson of Bell, an old-time real estate man in Southern California, and E. T. Wright, a civil engineer of Los Angeles. They figure the value of this land to be about $2,200,000. It is reported that nearly 70 per cent. of the heirs are willing to form a corporation for the handling of the property and to effect an amicable settlement.

LOOKS LIKE SUICIDE.

OXNARD, July 14.—The decomposed body of Charles Todd, 62 years old, an employee on the E. G. Laubacher ranch, was found partially buried in a haystack on the Elmer Johnson ranch, adjoining the Laubacher property. The find was made by a Mexican farmhand. It is believed Todd, in a fit of dependency, shot himself, as a revolver with two chambers discharged and three loaded was found under the body. No search when last seen at the ranch by a hired girl, he talked about going away for a while.

PLANS CAREER TO END DAYS.

Bryan Sentences Himself to Lecture for Life.

Prefers Voluntary Admission to Taxation Salary.

Seized with Mal de Mer on Trip to Catalina.

LONG BEACH, July 14.—William J. Bryan tonight announced his return to the lecture platform. To an audience of more than 2000 persons in the municipal auditorium he said that he was then inaugurating a series of lectures which were to be continued the remainder of his active life.

He defended his right to charge for his lectures. "Let the man who criticizes me for this, show that he has given more free time to the people than I in the last twenty years," he declared, with some heat.

"I expect to lecture as long as my strength holds out. I expect at least to lecture for twenty years, and to speak more often without pay than with pay. I will make the time I will speak in Long Beach on Sunday free of charge if a hall is provided me. I am returning to the lecture platform after a temporary absence. Lecturing has been my business for twenty years. Office holding has been merely incidental to me. I have expressed a willingness at different times to forego lecturing for four years, but never longer. I regard lecturing as not only legitimate but very necessary. When a man has something to say, he ought to have a chance to say it."

FREE SUNDAY LECTURE. The first of Mr. Bryan's free lectures, it was afterwards announced, would be delivered Sunday afternoon in the municipal auditorium.

As the guest of Capt. A. C. Malone, William J. Bryan crossed the channel to Catalina today in the little steamer Nellie. Before he left he had his black slouch hat renovated. He asked the renovator to "do a good job, as it looks a little like a fellow-man."

For fifteen minutes before the banquet tendered tonight by the Chamber of Commerce, the municipal band gave a welcome concert. After the repeat W. H. Wallace, president of the chamber, was toastmaster in a short program of musical numbers.

E. J. Thomas, formerly of Nebraska, spoke on the subject, "Greetings from Long Beach." Attorney E. J. Thomas, formerly of Nebraska, spoke on the subject, "Greetings from Long Beach."

DISPUTE OVER LAND. VISALIA, July 14.—First action in the legal battle whereby the heirs of Horace Whittaker hope to recover from the regents of the University of California a timber land in the foothills said to be valued at $200,000, was taken today when attorneys argued a demurrer interposed by the university authorities against the complaint.

While the State university and that certain conditions of the deed of gift have not been carried out, especially the provision that the land should be the site of a State college of forestry. Shortly after the action was filed by the heirs announcement was made that a university summer school would be opened on the property.

EMERGENCY COMMISSION ARRANGING A SCHEDULE.

SANTA MONICA, July 14.—The commissioners arrived today from the Governor and at 10 o'clock tomorrow the new city government will be organized, the three commissioners meeting then for the first time as a City Council, although they took the oath of office this afternoon.

The board will be composed as follows: T. H. Dudley, Commissioner of Public Safety, Mayor, Chief of Police, and head of the fire department, building superintendent and health officer; R. W. Armstrong, Commissioner of Public Works, street superintendent, custodian of all public buildings and works except libraries and schools, and M. K. Barretto, Commissioner of Finance, City Clerk, Treasurer, Assessor, Tax and License Collector.

The old Council that by the opinion of the Attorney-General had been legislated out of a job, spent the major portion of the day in conference, finally deciding that a friendly suit should be instituted to interpret the law and charter.

The style of this action is to be determined by the City Attorney and an attorney to be engaged by the old Council; but it is probable quo warranto proceedings will be rushed through the courts when some officer whose berth has under the opinion of the City Attorney been removed will refuse to surrender the fort.

Whether the case will be made to fit City Clerk Murray, Assessor Stockwell or one of the seven Councilmen has not been decided. The meeting to be held tomorrow will determine this. Meanwhile the City Attorney will Friday defend the city in the superior Court in the suit that has been brought praying for the appointment of a receiver for the municipality.

While the office of City Clerk and Assessor are supposed to have been abolished, those officers are still holding the fort and have not been requested to vacate.

TWICE SAVED BY TRANSFUSION.

NEPHEW GIVES UP FLUID TO PROLONG LIFE OF MONROVIA MAN.

MONROVIA, July 14.—For the second time within the past year William H. Gard has transfused into his veins blood from a fellow being and as a result is in better health than he has been for many weeks. In Gard's veins now flows almost a pint of the blood of Earl Gard, a nephew, who willingly allowed a vein in his arm to be opened in order that his relative might gain strength from the new fluid.

The elder Gard, who is 73, has been a sufferer from anemia for many months, and recently has been gradually losing strength. Saturday his condition was so serious that attending surgeons decided transfusion was the only possible means of saving his life.

The operation was apparently a complete success, for almost immediately after receiving the blood, the patient's cheeks flushed, his eyes brightened and his whole being became evidently strengthened. The improvement in his condition has continued and this morning for the first time in many weeks he demanded and ate breakfast.

ADD KINDERGARTEN.

SANTA PAULA, July 14.—A kindergarten will be added this fall to the Santa Paula grammar school. The clerk of the local school board has notified the County Superintendent of Schools to this effect. Santa Paula's kindergarten will be the third in the county in the public schools, the others being at Ventura and Oxnard. The addition of the kindergarten is in line with the general spirit of advancement which permeates Santa Paula people at this time.

PORTERVILLE PAVING.

PORTERVILLE, July 14.—More paving work was put under way by the city officials at their meeting today, when contracts were let to a San Francisco firm for the construction of work worth $15,000, in addition to the $125,000 contracts already being filled or nearly completed. The streets to be paved are Morton, Second, Thurman, Greville, Oak, Murray and Fig in the east side residence district. Orders for paving of El Granito, Bellevue, Morton, Thurman, Grand and E streets in the west side district have been published and the contracts will be let as soon as the necessary legal work can be completed.

PIG-FEEDING PRIZE. TULARE, July 14.—Byrne Sherman, a Tulare schoolboy, has been awarded the first prize in the pig-feeding contest, which has just closed. Sherman's work showing a net profit of $5.69 per cent. from his venture. Sherman used pure bred Duroc Jerseys and fed them on buttermilk, shorts and alfalfa. Several of the other boys made net profits which aggregated about 50 per cent.

SANTA ANA NEEDS LARGER OFFICES.

COUNTY OFFICIALS FIND IT HARD TO GET ROOM FOR ALL BUSINESS.

SANTA ANA, July 14.—Plans and specifications are being prepared for alterations in the basement of the Courthouse with a view to providing accommodations for the work of the various offices, some of which are needing more room.

The County Surveyor's office is to be moved to a down-town building. The Tax Collector will be given the rooms now occupied by the surveyor and justice of the peace, and the justice of the peace will be given the room occupied by the horticultural commissioner and forestry board, which are to be provided with a new room to be constructed in the basement.

PREPARES PETITIONS. That boosters for a harbor at Newport Bay are going to waste no time in taking advantage of harbor bills passed by the last Legislature is asserted by Attorney Clyde Bishop, City Attorney of Newport Beach and author of the bills.

Bishop says that under the law a harbor district can be formed by a county or part of a county. It is proposed to raise Orange County into a harbor district. The first step will be the circulation of a petition to the Board of Supervisors asking that a harbor commissioner of five be appointed and money set apart for its use in doing preliminary work.

The petition will require signatures of electors equal to 15 per cent. of the vote cast at the last general election. Bishop stated that he is now preparing the petition and will have them ready to circulate when the lava goes into effect on August 9.

NEWS BRIEFS. Big signs are to be placed on all main highways at the places where they cross the county line into Orange County. These signs will be put by the Board of Supervisors to indicate to travelers where the county line lies.

During the trial of Ernest Rents today, Attorney Cate for Rents declared that he was going to ask for a warrant for the arrest of Constable Eugene Davis of Huntington Beach.

San Bernardino.

ASSESSOR RECONSIDERS AFTER "SOAKING" ESPEE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN BERNARDINO, July 14.—The million-dollar increase in the assessed valuation of Southern Pacific land in San Bernardino county as scheduled by County Assessor E. J. Gilbert, who hired E. A. Decamp, a special deputy living outside the county on a contract that he would be given $200 if he raised the figures of the railroad property $1,000,000, was cut to $75,000 today when Gilbert backed down and recommended the cut.

The Assessor's letter to Decamp was brought before the Board of Equalization today when the railroad protested against being "stuck" for $1,000,000 increase in the assessed valuation of the entire assessment increase.

FREE MUSICAL CONCERT PLAN.

SOUTH PASADENA WOULD LEAD CITIZENS INTO REALM OF THE ESTHETIC.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.] SOUTH PASADENA, July 14.—Advancement along civic and commercial lines, the aim of most Chamber of Commerce organizations is to be augmented by the local business body with an attempt to lead local citizens into the realm of the purely cultural.

Thursday evening, July 29, is the announced date for a big free musical concert to be given under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce. South Pasadena talent only will be eligible on the programme, which is expected by its backers to be of so successful a nature as to create a demand for further and similar attempts to stimulate the music and cultural appreciative faculties of local residents.

BUSINESS WIPE OUT. "A has" the corner soda stand is the latest edict of Marshal W. H. Johnston, and as a result nearly forty enterprising young boys of the city have been deprived of their only means of raising "pocket money" to be used on expected vacations.

A number of property owners have complained to city authorities recently regarding the "poor" sale of local youngsters, stating that the "dimmy" box stands in general use have given a number of profane and vulgar corners an unsightly appearance. Hence the new ruling.

CATALINA PLANE. Nearly four score boys will attend the second annual vacation camp of the South Pasadena Y.M.C.A. to be held this year at Whittier's Landing, Catalina Island. Association Secretary Edwin M. Cooper, assisted by eight young college men, will form the executive forces for the outing.

Los Angeles Daily Times

Parade in Detail.

automobile entries, displayed the acme of beauty in decorative art, the prevailing scheme being California flowers in profusion, intermingled with the emblems and colors of the Elks.

ALL KINDS OF FLOWERS.

H. Glick of No. 440 South Broadway, drove a handsome large touring car literally covered with beautiful flowers of every description with the spreading antlers of an elk decorating the front of the radiator.

WOMAN DRIVER.

Mrs. J. Danielson, of No. 444 Denver avenue, drove her handsome big touring car and received frequent applause all along the line. The car was decorated to carry out a beautiful design in brilliant flowers.

CHRISTOPHER'S.

L. J. Christopher of No. 551 South Broadway made a big hit with his elaborately decorated touring car, in which the Elk colors mingled with floral decorations.

BIG ELK'S HEAD.

Decorating the front of the touring car driven by Mrs. Harry Hugin of No. 124 West Fourteenth street was an immense, life-like elk's head while the body of the car was covered with a mass of beautiful flowers.

HOLLYWOOD IN LINE.

With decorations of privet and larkspur and the purple and white of Elkdom, G. P. Perry of No. 4 Laughlin Park, Hollywood, drove a big touring car which received much applause.

RARE FLOWERS USED.

With the rarest and most beautiful flower used in its decoration the touring car of the Orchard Shop of Pasadena, driven by L. Johnson, was one of the prettiest in the line.

PRINTERS REPRESENTED.

The associated printers of the city were in line with a big touring car tastefully decorated and occupied by representatives of the craft.

FLOWERS OF ELKDOM.

Covered with the purple and white flowers of Elkdom, the touring car driven by Fred A. Krenwinkel of No. 4122 Woodlawn avenue attracted much attention as did also E. J. Knowles of No. 850 South St. Andrews place, with his elaborately decorated touring car. Elk streamers and banners were much in evidence, together with a mass of beautiful flowers on the car driven by E. G. Fernholm of No. 2212 West First street continuously.

DOGS WEAR CAPS.

Two prize bull dogs and a blue ribbon greyhound all three wearing purple and white caps, occupied the runabout driven by Joe Donovan of Santa Monica and caused applause whenever they appeared. The dogs were profusely and beautifully arranged formed the principal decoration of the runabout driven by W. K. Curtis of Eagle Rock.

FORESTERS ROADSTER.

The order of Foresters was represented in the automobile division with a handsomely decorated touring car.

ELECTRIC CARS.

Mrs. Volney Beardsley attracted much favorable comment in a handsome electric artistically decorated in corn flowers and purple and white trimmings. Miss Wanda Stump of No. 2908 Kenwood avenue drove a natty little electric beautifully decorated with bachelorette buttons and other flowers.

FOURTH DIVISION.

George T. Cline on a remarkable dancing horse was marshal of the fourth division which consisted of the marching clubs and which was headed by the most striking and interesting divisions of the parent. In this division marched the Salt Lake City High School cadets and the Richmond Blues, escorting Gov. Stuart of Virginia, as elsewhere described.

SCOTCH WAR MUSIC.

Watson's Royal Scottish Pipe Band, led by Pipe-Major Robert Watson, led the division. This band is composed of nine members, all old soldiers from Aberdeen and they played the same music that is used to pipe the Scots into action, when the pipes always lead the charges. Dr. Edward P. Bailey is president of the band and the Scotch battle tunes were played yesterday with a vim that aroused enthusiasm.

DENVER BAND APPLAUDED.

Following the mounted members of the reception committee, came the famous Cook Drum Corps and Band of Denver, with forty-one men under the leadership of Bandmaster George Heale. This is one of the crack musical organizations of the country and they were recognized and applauded at all points along the route. The same music that is used to pipe the Scots into action, when the pipes always lead the charges. Dr. Edward P. Bailey is president of the band and the Scotch battle tunes were played yesterday with a vim that aroused enthusiasm.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The Knights of Pythias were represented in this division with five organizations. First came the Officers Club of the Third Regiment, uniform rank, with Col. Clem Walton commanding and twenty-one men in line. They presented a splendid appearance. Behind them came D.O.K.K. patrol Lapp with sixteen men, in uniform of the patrol lent brilliancy to the parade.

WOMEN OF WOODCRAFT.

Lead by Mrs. Minnie Himer on horseback the elite women of the Women of Woodcraft were one of the sensations of the parade. Carbed in white with crests of flowers as they carried a number of the women streamers from the touring car in which rode the executive officers of the order of the Woodcraft. Lotta Hughes, Mrs. Belle Stoveman and Mrs. Angie Miller.

MORE SCOTCH PIPERS.

Next in line came the Los Angeles Caledonian Pipe Band, with ten men, under the leadership of Pipe-Major A. Black. This organization is well known and were received with enthusiasm all along the line of march.

FORESTERS APPLAUDED.

Twenty-three strong, under the leadership of Capt. J. W. Lorn, the marching organization of the Foresters, created a favorable impression, and was everywhere given rousing cheers. Their uniform was well known and they marched well.

OLD NO. 386, MOOSE.

Old No. 386 of the Moose Lodge made a brave display with eighteen men, under the command of F. W. Remy. Their white and gold uniforms were handsome and added much to the spectacular character of the parade.

FIFTH DIVISION.

Headed by M. C. Adler as marshal of this division, the mounted aides followed fast, and in turn were followed by the Waterfront Band of Elks in their natty brown uniforms. Then came numerous smaller entries of individuals, but more particularly by corporations. The principal moving-picture companies of the South-west did themselves proud. Several shops and cafes also had fine entries. The fire department brought up the end of the division.

ROMAN CHARIOT.

Joseph A. Eliason, the physical training man, rode in a fine Roman chariot covered with flowers. He drove four horses, and, like himself, his footmen were in Roman costume of white and gold.

ANHEUSER-BUSCH.

Eight spanking black mules drew a wagon filled with shrubbery and flowers, mostly white carnations. Mountain heather was profusely used in the decoration.

MAIER TANDEM.

A pair of black horses driven in tandem style were motive power for the high-seated vehicle of E. R. Maier. The reins and harness of the animals, as well as all parts of the buggy, were covered with white aster and purple flowers of the same kind.

OCCIDENTAL FILM COMPANY.

Mrs. H. C. Moore and two friends in white attire, with purple parasols, rode in the coupe entered by the Occidental Film Company. Purple asters and white carnations were the chief floral coverings, and, added to the white moon of the coupe, trapplings, the entry was striking.

SNYDER ENTRY.

A coal-black horse, drawing a light buggy covered with white daisies, was entered and driven by Mrs. B. M. Snyder.

MARIE BARKER.

"Marie Barker," a famous black mare, was driven by C. J. Blackshear of this city. The mare was under white carnations and ferns.

ALHAMBRA PRINCE.

Charles W. Winter in a carriage covered with pink oleander blossoms and mounted by a groom, "Alhambra Prince," a champion stallion.

DAHLIA DISPLAY.

An education in dahlia beauties was afforded by the entry of the Eagle Rock Dahlia Farm. An elk's head of predominate yellow and brown dahlias was embedded in the center of a green moss background. The border of the wonderfully-colored flowers of this variety.

CLUNE'S AUDITORIUM.

Probably most beautiful of the entries in the fifth division was that of Clune's Auditorium Theater. Arabs on fine steeds and silver flashed outriders. A wide embankment of pink carnations, bearing the name of the theater and the play now showing, surrounded the door of the scene. In the foreground splashed the fountain of eternal youth. Back of it stood a wonderful floral cross, about which brilliant rays of silver flashed continuously. "The Rosary" was strongly set forth on purple blossoms. Just at the rear of the cross an eagle before a great white star, the allegory completed in this way.

CHOCOLATE IN TONS.

Two girls in dainty Dutch costume stood among the shrubbery and flowers of the chocolate display. Carrying 5000 bonbons, weighing something like a ton. Attached to the big box were numerous smaller ones that are used in actual service by the various Chocolate Shops which made the entry.

BRISTOL CAFE.

White sweet peas and white ribbons mingled with the shrubbery and flowers, which completely hid the big touring car of the Bristol Cafe. Mrs. William Schneider, wife of the proprietor, and a daughter rode in the beautiful machine.

HARLOW'S CAFE.

White carnations, palms and strange white grasses covered the machine entered by Harlow's Cafe. The tonneau rode two pretty cabaret artists dressed in white and purple.

SELIG CAGE.

A vivid circus splash was added to the parade by the entrance of the Selig cage, which was a large cage of a man and a woman in bright garb, sat among the handsome felines, of which there were at least a dozen. The cage was largely hidden beneath white carnations and purple straw flowers.

UNIVERSAL LIONS.

An immense elk head projected ahead of the parade, the head of the Universal Amusement Syndicate. The biggest lions from the Universal Jungle were carried in the body of the cage, which was trimmed in variegated purples and surrounded by purple girls dressed in white and purple.

BOTTLE BUT NO DRINKS.

A tall bottle fashioned of white carnations was centered with a shield of red geraniums, white carnations and purple straw flowers. Around the top of it sat about fifteen little girls in purple and white "Pierrette" costumes. A great white shield bore the name of the entry, the East Side Brewing Company.

PASADENA G.A.R.

Thirteen Pasadena G.A.R. men, mostly members of the Pipe and Drum Corps, rode behind the "Gods of Liberty" who drove an elk at the head of the float. The body was an American flag in flowers, the red blossoms being flaming eucalyptus. The white carnations and blue bachelorette buttons, Bougainvillea was used as the ends of the float.

GRIFFITH PARADE.

D. W. Griffith's Reliance-Mutual company gave the visitors a parade in itself. Six floats depicting the various phases of the picture industry were headed by the name. First showed a mission garden with mountain background, with several characters being familiar to the man with the camera and a director. The next depicted the finishing of the film, a group of photographers working at the tanks and on the reels. The third showed a group of girls printing, while the fourth depicted another group of girls cutting out pictures. The fifth showed a group of girls in the film. A group of judges, among them kings, emperors, statesmen, generals, were seated in the projecting room where the film is given its first try-out on the fifth of the floats, and the final one showed some of the principal incidents from masterpieces, such as the "Canneman," "Judith of Bethulia," "Home Sweet Home," and others.

A PAIR OF STARS.

Field daisies of purple hue covered the machine of the Keystone Film Company in which rode Mabel Normand and her partner. The wall emblem with its capital "K" was embedded on laurel leaves in the center body of the machine on both sides. The front of the car was white carnations dangling above the tonneau.

LASKY COACH.

With cowboy outriders, the old stage coach, practically veiled by white carnations and ferns, was drawn through town by a span of horses. On it and in it rode the stars of the Lasky company. Jesse L. Lasky Feature Film Company.

JAHNKE'S CAFE.

Purple and white streamers, running to a panoply of the same kind, covered the machine entered by Jahnske's Cafe. A group of cabaret stars rode in the machine.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The floweriest part of the floral parade was by all odds the Los Angeles fire department, with its many entries. No local parent of any pretension at all could overlook the artistic abilities of the fire fighters, whose trucks, ladders and engines were works of art without exception. Added to the floral feature is now the Fire-

HEAVY INCREASE IN PARCEL POST.

POSTAL OFFICIAL FORECASTS MORE EXTENSIVE USE OF SERVICE.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
RIVERSIDE, July 14.—That there will be a steady increase in the average weight of parcel post packages, as the public learns that heavy packages may be economically carried in the near zones, is the prediction of Daniel C. Roper, First Assistant Postmaster-General, who spent last night in the city.

The official based his statement on the experience of the past year when the average weight of packages increased two ounces over the average of the preceding year. The average for each package last year was one pound and four ounces and a billion packages were handled.

Mr. Roper discussed with Postmaster Harger the department's plans in the city.

TRUCK NO. 2.

Pampas grass of purple and white shades covered the wheels of Truck No. 2. A red geranium background brought into relief the white and purple B.O.E. Truck No. 23 was striking with its immense clock of white daisies. The truck was decorated with border in lavender centaureas. Hydrangeas were used for canopying the driver and attendants. Engine No. 23 was covered with a pergola of bougainvillea.

WATER TOWER NO. 1.

A California brown bear held the streamers attached to the bride of the big elk standing at the end of water tower No. 1. Streamers of bougainvillea and a covering of this flower were used for the main portion of the body, while the main portion of the body beneath red carnations. Assistant Chief McDowell rode in a car that carried two half moons of the sides. These were of white daisies, bordered by red geraniums, and on the edge lay a pretty girl in white, carrying purple parasols.

TRUCK NO. 17.

A massive elk head peered out of the great red shield, topped by a white star that was carried as cover for Truck No. 17. Pampas grass, profusely used in the base and wheels. Engine No. 17 injected a little comedy by carrying a miniature house which blazed throughout the parade with firemen working at it. The other portions of the machine were covered with streamers of red. White daisies and a green background spelled out the word "welcome" to the visitors on Ladder Truck No. 4. The wheels were blue and white, and pink hyacinths, drangas. "Bill" was the name of the horse on Ladder Truck No. 10. White centaureas were used to make it stand out as a guard of red geraniums. The base and wheels of the wagon were in bougainvillea.

LASSEN PEAK THERE.

Lassen Peak rode in state through the parade, just behind the boys of Engine No. 19 used a replica of the erupting California volcano to cover the hood of their engine. The mountain heather and snow-capped peaks does the real Lassen Peak. The body of the car was covered with shrubbery representing the slopes of the mountain, and the base carried a welcome sign for the visiting lodgment.

SIXTH DIVISION.

Varied was the collection of entries in this division under Marshall Ray Vordere. It ranged from red geraniums in gramophone, large grounds and a fine spirit of enthusiasm. THE BOYS LIKE IT. The parade opened at 10 o'clock and continued until 11 o'clock. The parade was a great success and the boys of the city were very much interested in it.

CAWSTON FARM.

Dressed in a handsome purple gown, with a hat, plumed in white, Miss Isabel Mark drove one of the biggest attractions in Southern California. The bird was hit to a regular and a regular sulky and occasionally showed bursts of speed that worried the hand ahead. The name of the entry was worked in purple aster and a background of white sweet peas.

BOSTOCK'S ARENA.

Four "Bills" have sworn off riding elephants for all time. Two rode on each elephant and swayed from side to side with sufficient velocity to make about the next thing to seasickness. Four other Elks rode that many came and are also wondering whether these beasts should not have been named ploughs instead of ships of the desert.

MINIATURE STAGE.

Almost hidden from sight, the heads of the little girls who rode through in the miniature coach entered by St. Clair, occasionally stuck through the greenery and made a pretty picture.

ORIGINAL STAGE.

The original stage running between Sacramento and San Francisco was entered by B. N. Bowser. It was draped with white carnations and ferns and the passengers were all girls. Four great wheels, which were named ploughs instead of ships of the desert, were pulled by a group of western outriders in chaps, sombreros and similar accouterments.

A BIT OF CHINA.

The real Chinese rode in a modern machine, covered with geraniums while they played their ancient instruments and made strange music. Following came the great dragon with its fiery eyes, its gold trim and its colorful back. A hundred feet carried the monster through the streets, winding back and forth without stop.

CHAPLIN IMITATORS.

About forty Los Angeles boys, whose weeks have been passed in study of the grotesque actions of one Charles Chaplin of motion picture fame, appeared in the disguise of their actor. There were all sizes of Chaplin from a 12-year-old foot footer to an eighteen-year-old six footer and they were tumbled, kicked, lost their hats and banged their canes to the amusement of the multitudes along the line of march.

SEVENTH DIVISION.

With Jake Vogt as marshal, the seventh division, though the last in the procession was one of the most attractive features. More than a score of young ladies in girlish in true dresses made a pretty out-of-door picture astride beautiful horses and ponies. Thelma and Eva Yeager rode in tandem style and their particularly pleasing. Miss Bell, Miss Delamora, Miss Cameron and Claudine Ward approved every applause.

RIDING SENIORITAS.

Louis Rico, of the famous early day Rico family, made a handsome appearance on his dashing steed. He acted as the escort to a number of typically handsome Spanish ladies. Miss Lucero was a dream in her lovely riding habit as was Miss Avella.

The Los Angeles Police Department, whose members have become quite proficient under the tutelage of Fire Commissioner Frankenstein, brought up the rear with a strong line of Los Angeles, California" and made a big hit.

In the Riverside district, he estimates that one man in an automobile could readily cover twenty-five mile routes now served by two men with horse-drawn vehicles, an arrangement that would effect a saving of $600 per year.

Mr. Roper was accompanied by C. M. Baker, secretary of the United States Senate, and Congressman Kettner. The officials inspected the new Federal Building, and expressed their satisfaction with the arrangement and appointments.

EVENTIDE WEDDING.

Capt. James C. McKnight, a Civil War veteran, aged 80, was wed at noon today to Mrs. Charlotte C. Smith, aged 70, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. P. McKnight of Los Angeles, a son of the cotenarian groom.

The bride has been a resident of this city for eleven years, coming here from Vancouver, Wash., where she was head matron of an institution for deaf mutes. Capt. McKnight is from Illinois and became acquainted with the bride when he was in the service during his winter visits to the city.
